3. Solar Return Sun in the Houses.

What We'll Cover

4. Ruler of Your Solar Return Ascendant and Midheaven.

6. Ascendant and Angles are Cardinal Signs.

Map Your Future

The Solar Return chart is your birth chart of a new year in your life.

Cast at the moment the Sun returns to its exact natal position (either on your birthday or the day before/after), this chart is a script for yearlong storylines that will preoccupy you.

Each year you are faced with new adventures, as different areas of your life are ready to be explored.

Map Your Future

Every time your birthday comes around there are new ventures to explore, goals to accomplish, opportunities to take advantage of, conflicts to resolve and bring into balance, talents to be further developed and growth to experience.

The themes in every Solar Return chart are usually well defined.

Map Your Future

Of course, no one can foresee how anyone will accept, explore or resist the messages, directions, lessons and feelings shown in the Solar Return.

No one can determine whether a year will be experienced as easy or challenging.

However, the true gift of the Solar Return is that, in seeing the storylines you can choose to work positively with the themes and consciously direct your life to flow with them, since you are well aware of what areas are being highlighted.

Map Your Future

What is easy to forecast are the feelings and thoughts associated with each Solar Return.

Many events unfold as a result of those feelings and thoughts, and thus dependent on the amount of knowledge, self awareness and initiative the person has.

Map Your Future

To begin we'll cover where and how to create Solar and Lunar Return Charts - and Birth Charts.

There are 3 reasons for knowing how to create these:

1. Each Return chart is Location Specific.
2. They are constantly changing - Solar Returns every year, Lunar Returns every 27.5 days.
3. You'll know how to create charts for any person, whether past, present or future Solar or Lunar Returns.

Your Natal Chart

Every reading begins with your Birth Promise.

Before creating a Solar Return Forecasting Charts always have the person's Birth Chart up on your screen or, even better, printed out.

Planets in Houses (and Signs)

The house placement of a Solar Return planet is far more important than the sign it is in. That's because:

The Sun is always in the same sign and degree.

Mercury can only be - at the most - one sign away from the Sun, so it becomes repetitive.

Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Chiron and Pluto are slow-moving planets.

The sign for SR Venus and Mars is only of some importance.

The only sign placement of true significance is the sign of the Solar Return Moon.

Sun, Moon, Rulership Planets in Houses

First we'll cover the House placement of the Sun, Moon and Ruling planets of the Ascendant and Midheaven.

Planets in Houses

The house placement of a Solar Return planet is more important than the sign it is in. That's because:

- ★ The Sun is always in the same sign and degree.
- ★ Mercury can only be at the most one sign away from the Sun, so it becomes repetitive.
- ★ Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Chiron and Pluto are slow-moving planets.
- ★ So the only planets where signs are of significance are the Moon, Venus and Mars.
