Numerology: Your Personal Months

Numerology: Your Personal Months

Before we dive into our first case study, an addendum to Module 4:

Lunar Return charts last nearly a month. Just like Solar Return charts are aligned to the numerology equivalent of a Personal Year number, Lunar Returns are active during two (sometimes three) of your Personal Month numbers.

The meaning of the Personal Month forecast augments the Lunar Return forecast.

Numerology: Your Personal Months

Refer to the "How To Calculate Your Personal Month" section in the Calculation Guide PDF.

The numerological meaning for each Personal Month number is the same as for the Personal Year - just like the interpretation for the shorter Lunar Return aspects and house positions are the same as for the Solar Return.

Here are the interpretations again for your convenience.

SR Moon in PISCES

You will feel like you've come to the end of something, and are much more sensitive to vibration and frequency and other people. Your environment has a major impact on you, so make sure it is not too noisy so you don't feel overwhelmed. Take time to rejuvenate so you are grounded to handle challenges.

You need to empower yourself and others by changing how you use your energy and drive.

Use the power you are being given - don't be afraid to advance.

When you focus your ambition in a positive way it is a major asset.

You represent the solution, so be pro-active and direct with any issues facing you or opportunities looking to be explored.

Using the intensely powerful Mars/Pluto energy in a wise and effective way creates a time to shine. Work with what you have available in a positive, life-affirming way.

MARS Retrograde in SR/LR Chart

Mars retrograde in the Solar or Lunar Return Chart means you can work on a long-term project - especially one that requires self-motivation where you repeatedly push yourself toward achievement.

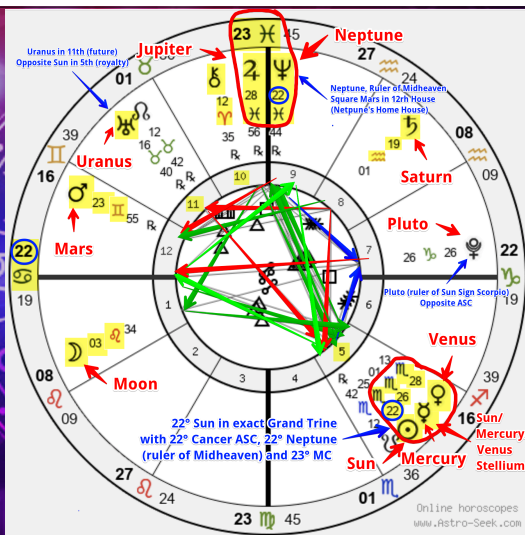

You are a motivating force. No one else can get you to move. So it's highly unlikely you will be motivated by others.

If you don't motivate yourself or direct your energy consciously you will feel tired and listless.

This is a time of the most profound transformation across all areas of your life - and can last for a number of consecutive years.

You are becoming more aware of how people get, maintain, and use power to reach goals or control their lives or others.

You may experience a threat to your power and how you handle the crisis will be life-changing. You will be asked to maintain your balance while tapping into your deepest, inner, spiritual resources.

Guard against reacting instantly to people or events with fear instead of asking for clarity and understanding. Discovering new paths to empowerment and success leads to life-long skills.

Set goals and focus on achievement so you can leverage the true potential of this astoundingly powerful period in your life.
