Astro-Numerology Star Code for MARCH 2024

– Audio Transcript and Daily Astro-Numerology Guide –

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast. This is the March, 2024 edition. Let's get started with the Universal month number for March, 2024. It is an 11 Universal Month, and that, of course, is very intense energy.

11 is a doubling up of the number 1, and it means that there is a lot of new beginnings energy. We also start the eclipse season in March. So that actually means that we're heading into a time when the big eclipse on April 8th is right around the corner. We won't be covering that today, but the fact that March is an 11 does indicate that the energy really is intensifying.

So aside from double new beginnings, there's a lot of illumination with the number 11, shining the light on things, hearing the message from the divine in a way that creates a gateway to truth.

It is you understanding that you're always in a state of knowing, as long as you open up and accept the fact that you have this divine connection, and don't resist it, and really seek it out.

March will really ask us to do the seeking out. We'll want to be in touch and walk through that 11 portal, which is a literal gateway, because it brings exciting, stimulating, new insights and perceptions. So this could be a cycle where you're making new decisions and maybe making them rapidly as well, or dealing with events that require quick action.

This is very much connected to you using your intuition, because very often when we have to make a quick decision, we do need to rely completely on our intuitive abilities.

Know that, because 11 resonates to light, there can be a spotlight that also shines on you in some way. Just know that you've had the previous preparation for that to happen. So if it does, it can be also a testing period because you're going through a lot of growth as you shine your light and share what it is that comes up in a way that is really appropriate and needed at that moment.

So no matter what, you're going to feel a fresh new surge of energy.

And whether you're in the northern or southern hemisphere, we do have the Equinox in March. So it does begin a new season of Spring for us up here. And of course, Autumn for those below the equator.

So that also indicates a shift. There's just a lot of very exciting energy in this code.

Then we come to the first lunation, which actually happens on the 10th of March - the Pisces New Moon.

March 10 reduces to 1 so there is a new beginnings energy there.

In fact, the 10th of March adds up to a 1-2-3 code.

10 of course is 1, March is an 11 Universal Month, which reduces to 2. And the whole date on the 10th of March, 2024 adds up to 12, which reduces to 3.

So 1-2-3, ready, set, go!

It is a New Moon - and that represents new beginnings. We're in a double new beginnings 11 month, so I think you'll really feel by this time, this sense of new beginnings energy on the Ides of March day, which is March 10th.

The Moon is sextile to Uranus, and the Sun is sextile Uranus.

That means a lot of changes -, just seeing things in a way that is exciting and inventive and seeking freedom, taking opportunities to upgrade.

Uranus, of course, rules the Aquarian age. So there is this real sense of breakthroughs and yearning for freedom and all of these lovely things. So that those will be very beautiful energies you can tune into.

Mars also squares Uranus and this is the Pisces New Moon. So it is all about our spiritual sense are going within. Mars square Uranus really shakes things up. It actually is exact on March 9th and then leads into this new moon on March 10th.

So, whatever liberating impact you're feeling is really going to go on overdrive. And what you really need to feel at this time is a way to release tension and be creative and be able to break away from restriction and authority.

So guard against communicating with anger. And to help your personal relationships too, Mars is very intimate and sensual, so relationships can be invigorated with this square to Uranus.

So prepare definitely for surprising developments. Embrace the unusual.

It's a time to manifest powerful change in your life.

Mercury sextile Pluto also happens during this New Moon. And that is important because Pluto is at the very beginning of Aquarius. Of course we have the ruler of Aquarius, Uranus square to Mars as well. So there's a lot of change around this time, and when Pluto and Mercury get together in a sextile, it really heightens your intuition.

It helps you to use your inner intelligence to move forward in a beautiful way.

Jupiter is sextile Saturn. This is a wonderful time to help you feel that joy and the connection to spiritual accomplishment. Jupiter loves to learn and speaks the truth, and Saturn is very responsible. So the sextile creates a beautiful positive attitude.

And then we come to the second lunation, which is the Libra Lunar Eclipse. It happens on March 25th at 7:00 AM universal time. I believe the clocks are not quite coordinated with the changes that we go through in different parts of the world. So I have to double check this, but I believe it's at 3:00 AM Eastern, 12:00 AM Pacific.

In any case, it is the first of two eclipses and it happens in Libra with the Sun in Aries, and it's the third consecutive full moon at 5°.

In terms of the aspects that are made - the sun and moon, which of course are opposite each other at 5° Libra and 5° Aries, they make a really nice trine from the Moon and sextile from the Sun to Pluto which is now at 1° in Aquarius. This really helps with just overall the theme of the 11 universal month, which is psychic perception, heightened intuition, and also - with Pluto creating empowerment - feeling confident. It just brings a lot of emotional empowerment as well.

So this connection to Pluto from the Eclipse allows you to focus on taking the lead and having this kind of effortless confidence.

We have other planets that are merged: Venus is joined with Saturn in a conjunction. And Venus rules the Libra Lunar Eclipse. Venus has quite a few transits, so Venus will really focus this Libra eclipse on our intimate, close relationships, which Libra symbolizes. So Venus conjunct Saturn means we're looking at those relationships to, in a more serious way, looking at loyalty, integrity, commitment, and being more simple in how we approach things. Not judging how we feel or how others feel, and at the same time not restricting how we feel or how we want to express ourselves.

Give your imagination a structured way to actually express itself - this is another way to use this energy, especially in your work. So not to suppress any creativity whatsoever.

What really helps is that Venus is also sextile Jupiter. So what's happening is that Jupiter and Uranus are now coming together in a conjunction, which will be exact in mid-April. So Jupiter will be at 15 degrees, almost 16 degrees, and Venus at 16 degrees in Pisces during this eclipse.

Venus is exalted in Pisces. So this is a really beautiful connection between these two benefic planets.

Jupiter also was the traditional ruler of Pisces before Neptune was discovered. And so this is a very warm and fuzzy Venus/Jupiter transit bringing a lot of harmony, a lot of optimism, and feels very lucky and generous, and creates a time period to celebrate beauty, cheerfulness optimism, having a positive outlook on your future, and being able to heal any disharmony in your relationships easily.

Venus is also sextile Uranus - yes, that's a craving for excitement and love. It also helps you explore finances in a different way so you can have greater financial flow as well with this transit.

So now let's focus on the astrology and numerology for every day in March.
