Star Code for MARCH, 2023

– Audio Transcript and Daily Astro-Numerology Guide –

Hello there and welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for March, 2023. One of the biggest months that I have experienced in a long time as an Astro-Numerologist. I'm very excited about it. So much to share with you here.

So let's dive into the universal month number for March 1st.

March, 2023 is one of those months where we will start feeling the transition that's coming to a head in 2025, right in the middle of the decade as usual. You know, the codes are just amazing.

And the reason it's such a big year is, at the end of 2024, for six, seven straight months, all the slow moving planets from Jupiter all the way to Pluto are going to change signs. So that would be Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto. All five will be changing signs. And so that is unprecedented.

That means they'll all be at 0 degrees during that period. And that signifies, of course a tremendous shift.

So having said that, why is that important for March of 2023? Well, because Saturn is changing signs from Aquarius into Pisces on March 7th, and Pluto is changing signs from Capricorn into Aquarius at the end of March.

And then we have several other fast-moving planets also changing signs:

Venus enters Taurus, Mercury enters Aries, the Sun of course enters Aries and Mars enters Cancer.

It's a big shift month, and as it happens, it's a 10 universal month. 10 reduces to 1. So new beginnings.

Of course, when a planet moves into a new sign, that's also new beginnings. So you'll feel a really refreshing energy.

And keep in mind that all the planets will be moving direct still all the way through almost the end of April. There are no retrogrades. So that is also part of the major sweeping shift in play now.

10 is the number that I call "Instant Manifestation". It's made up of 1 and 0, 1 being the masculine, 0 the feminine. And so it combines both and is the number of love and light and also referred to as the Wheel of Fortune number.

10 basically says - you are in charge. Your thoughts create your reality. This is going to be absolutely vital.

And since 2023 is a 7 Universal Year and 7 and 1 (because 10 reduces to 1) are in the "Mind triad" in numerology, the truth that your thoughts create your reality is going to really come home to roost in a sense in March.

So this is the God consciousness vibration. 1's and 0's make up the universe - straight line and circle.

And because March is a major month for astrological shifts, as we just looked at, the number 10 is going to enhance your ability to become incredibly self-aware and have tremendous growth and really feel like a new phase of your life is going to begin.

Now, what we also have in March is a very exciting day, actually. As you know, the equinox happens in March and September. And as it happens, the New Moon and Aries this year are on March 21st at 0 degrees. And we'll be going into that in a moment, but that's another new beginnings. It's the beginning of the season of spring in the northern hemisphere and autumn in the Southern hemisphere.

But with the New Moon the same day in the first sign of Aries, it adds again to the tremendous shifts that are going on. So this is super exciting.

And the number 10/1 again is giving you a strong push towards implementing your intentions, your goals, your dreams, and your intelligence is activated with the 10/1 and the 7 universal year.

So your focus is really amazing. You're able to analyze really well and you will need some time alone with the number 1. And of course, all year long, meditation and serenity for your inspiration are also favored.

So there's going to be a necessity for you to take that time for yourself, get out in nature, even if it's just for five, 10 minutes sitting in the sun, walking in the sun, whatever it is, or in the rain. It's just something to connect you to the beauty of nature and the beauty of silence. So that's the numerology code.

And then we have a Full Moon in Virgo. This is a big full moon because it happens the same day - just like the Aries New Moon happens the same day as the Equinox - this full moon in Virgo on March 7th happens the same day that Saturn changes signs.

After about two-and-a-half, three years, Saturn is moving into Pisces on that same day. Yeah, this is amazing.

And it's happening March 7th - there's the number 7.

We're in a 7 universal year.

The full moon is at 16 degrees, 16 reduces to 7. So Sun and Moon are both at 7 and the Sun is conjunct Mercury, which is at 7° Pisces, opposite the Moon at 16 degrees Virgo.

So that creates a quintuple 7:7:7:7:7 code and again, reiterates the importance of inspiration, listening to the divine voice, the divine message.

This is really going to be the big key to navigating the next couple of years is that connection. That relationship to the divine is your most important one. In March that'll be very much the message for all of us.

This Full Moon also creates a trine to Uranus from the Moon, sextile from the Sun, and Uranus is at 15 degrees in Taurus. So it's a very close trine and triangle that's created with the Sun, Moon, and Uranus.

So again this is helping us to connect to inspiration and to be very flexible and open, allow life to take unexpected twists and turn, taking new paths or having an understanding, where you realize something because your perspective is changing, right?

Taurus is a sign of values as well. It's a very grounding sign. And so when Uranus is in Taurus, which it has been since 2018 and continues to be through 2025, your values are shifting.

What you thought was important to you is either going to take on more meaning or a different perspective, or you have some new values that you are taking on.

And those are also related to how you feel in terms of internally - do you feel abundant? Do you feel pleasure? And the values are then based on that sense of completion, abundance, and pleasure and beauty.

One more thing to mention about this Full Moon in Virgo is that there is a stellium in Aries between Jupiter, Chiron, and Venus. And the reason this is also important is the Sun and Moon create a T-square. It's a pretty wide T-square, but it's still happening nonetheless with Mars.

Mars is at 21 degrees Gemini, almost 22 degrees. So like I said, it's wide, but it is there, and Mars rules Aries.

This stellium in Aries also indicates, with the T-square to Mars, the new beginnings factor - Aries being the first sign, Mars being the ruler of Aries.

And Venus and Chiron and Jupiter -there's a lot of new beginnings with joy, with discovering how important joy is, and beauty and to surround yourself with those because they bring healing, which is the Chiron part of the stellium.

So, that's something to focus on as well.

Finally two planets will be at 29 degrees: Pluto moving into Aquarius a couple of weeks later, and Saturn, which that very day on March 7th is moving from 29°59 minutes in Aquarius to 00:00 Pisces.

So that again, is an open door.

So let's move to the second lunation that's happening. And that is the New Moon in Aries on the 21st of March with the Sun and Moon at 0° degrees Aries.

And they are conjunct to Mercury. So that is always nice for feeling very connected, to focus, to communicate, to be present in a way that is beautiful for negotiations, correspondence, business matters, having a clear intellect, really creating positive outcomes with your thoughts.

Remember one of the big themes in March is that your thoughts create your reality.

And yes, we've all heard that before, but to make it experiential, meaning you are experiencing it in real time, that's really where the growth begins. The understanding of course, comes first and then the actual experiential part is the key to changing your cells and your way of thinking.

Your tools for addressing thoughts that are not helpful are so helped when you experience the result of either thoughts that are supportive and vivacious and joyful and proactive and look at opportunities in everything - versus thoughts that are more the victim and fear-based thoughts.

So all of that will be made a lot more clear and that is indicated by this conjunction as well.

Now there's also an out-of-sign conjunction to Neptune. Neptune is in Pisces at 25 degrees. So it's about five and a half degrees from the New Moon still having an impact here, where it's igniting your imagination, giving you emotional focus. Neptune is increasing your empathy and compassion.

Just make sure you set boundaries and are very conscious of how your imagination is impacting your life. And also using it in a way that is positive.

The Moon is square to Mars. The Sun is square to Mars. This is an out-of-sign square again.

Mars is in Gemini. If Mars had been in Cancer, it would've been not out-of-sign. But it still is pretty close. So again, this square is asking you to act.

This is an Aries New Moon and Mars rules Aries, so there'll be a big push to get up and get things done.

Just guard against impulsiveness or overheated passion or being argumentative or aggressive or reactionary where you just are very sensitive and easily triggered. But the flip side is - because the New Moon is in Aries you feel very energized and stimulated to act.

So action is really the key because that's where Mars gets its greatest joy. That sacred warrior spirit of Mars is most happy when it can manifest and move into a direction as speedily as possible. Using your passionate engagement, having an outlet for your creativity is really the key with this square.

One more thing. We have another out-of-sign connection, and that is a sextile to Pluto. And this one is super close. It's almost not out-of-sign because Pluto will be at 29 degrees, 58 minutes. And two days later, on the 23rd of April, Pluto is entering Aquarius.

This is very exciting because Pluto enhances your inspiration. You feel very empowered with this sextile, very empowered. Aries is ruled by Mars. And Mars and Pluto are very connected. Mars is the original ruler, Scorpio, Pluto, the modern ruler Scorpio. So this Aries New Moon sextile Pluto helps you to strive for something that you deeply desire, that you want to accomplish.

And it feels effortless because you're ready to take the lead and your impact and influence are really stimulated. So that is all really wonderful news.
