– Audio Transcript and Daily Guide –

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for October, 2023.

Let's begin with the universal month number. We're entering a really powerful month, both in the numerology and astrology, because first of all, October is an 8 universal month, and 8 is the infinity number and the number of eternal life.

It means you naturally align to the frequencies of leadership and abundance and confidence and success and having a big vision and implementing that big vision and focusing on financial flow in a way that allows you to really take advantage of the gifts you have to offer and make them into tangible form.

The number 8 is in the 2-4-8 triad, and that is the triad of manifestation. So it does cover you going and implementing something of value and then receiving value in return. In this case it would be financial flow abundance.

We're in a 7 universal year in 2023, and the combination of 8 and 7 gives you the spiritual confidence to listen to your heart for guidance, get that intuitive guidance, and then inspire others to take the lead from a place of heart-centered consciousness.

You are basically merging the number of empowerment and leadership - 8 - with the number of spiritual guidance - 7 - which is of course an incredible combination.

So focus on how you're creating. Make sure that your creative time is inspiring, is confidence building, is enjoyable to you. And that way true abundance can flow unimpeded from you and to you, because you are in service to love and light.

Now the other thing about the number 8 is that 8 is the only number that you can draw repeatedly without lifting your pen. And that means that there is an eternal source of energy there for you.

It's similar to Mars in that sense, that energetically you will be more on fire. In October, you'll have a sense of rewards that come from promotions that can come through. The more energy you expend on something that really is empowering and of value and high vibrational, the more you're going to feel the repercussions and the rewards.

This energy theme is really big with the number 8. This is part of the flow from numbers 1 through 9. And so we're doing the complete cycle this year, where the 9 universal month will be in November.

So there is a sense of you not struggling, but allowing the ebb and flow of these numbers to inspire you.

Then we move to the other exciting part, and why October is so empowering and big this year. It is that we have two eclipses. So both lunations this month are eclipses!

Solar Eclipse (New Moon Eclipse) in Libra

October 14 at 6:55 pm UT (London)

October 14 at 1:55 pm EST (New York)

The first lunation is exact on October 14th. It is in Libra. It is a New Moon Eclipse, a Solar Eclipse in Libra, and it occurs at 6:55 PM universal time in London. Eastern time that would be 1:55 PM in the US and 10:55 AM Pacific time.

Now this eclipse takes place at 21 degrees in Libra. We haven't had a Libra eclipse in some years. This first eclipse in Libra, one of Venus's two signs, is going to be very welcome.

Now, if you remember, because of the lunar nodes moving through Scorpio and Taurus, the eclipses have been in Taurus and Scorpio - and Taurus is the other sign that Venus rules. So Venus is very prominent these days, and with this Libra eclipse. Even moreso, because it happens at 21 degrees - and that's the number of our century, 21st century, it's the number of truth. "The truth shall set you free".

It activates Venus in a way that is quite beautiful, actually. Venus has a sextile to Mars, and Venus has an opposition to Saturn, and we'll get to that in a moment. Anytime the ruling planet of a lunation - including an eclipse - is activated, it makes the eclipse even more powerful.

So the moon and sun are merged with Mercury. They're conjunct Mercury, which gives you a lot of ideas. You're making new plans.

This will be a beautiful time to actually move forward very consciously with communication abilities. Any kind of writing you do, any kind of social media or, and I'm talking now professionally, anything that you can share through webinars or video correspondence, negotiations. - this is really good for business matters and it'll give you the clear intellect, the focus to really hone in on positive outcomes.

You're very conscious of your goals as well. The sun and moon are opposite to Chiron, and that means love through healing. So you move into a healing therapy, for example, if you feel the call to do so, and that will incorporate a sense of compassion and love, massage... Anything that really instills you with potent healing energy is calling for you to pay attention now to any unresolved issues.

The opposition always wants to bring energy into harmony. There's an opposite force that's calling your attention. So you want to engage also in loving conversations and allow your inner spirituality to lead you and to really pay full attention to not go into a place of where you are literally fighting on the opposite side of a topic or an opinion.

Moon and sun are also square to Pluto, which is very intense. It is a pretty wide square. So the sun and moon at, 21 degrees Libra while Pluto is at 27 degrees, 53 minutes in Capricorn.

Pluto will be moving direct again shortly. It will not go beyond 27 degrees Capricorn.

Now the good thing is we have Mercury conjunct the Sun and Moon. And the other good thing is, is that Venus has a beautiful sextile to Mars. So that helps to bring more soft energy - to soften it up, to not have so much antagonistic energy.

The other thing is with Sun and Moon square Pluto in terms of us all individually, is that it brings an empowering rebirth energy. It really calls for us to surrender to Prime Creator, to Source in order to be set free from those things that have been nagging unconsciously in the background.

And so it does create a very, very deep shift and reinvigorates your ability to get completely inspired. Pluto is incredibly psychic. And you want to channel that intuitive energy, which is going to be very intense, into something that is empowering, into a goal, into something that eventually will reap great rewards, because you're igniting your drive to succeed.

And that's how you're harmonizing the tension of the square.

So be sure to breathe and rest and definitely let bygones be bygones and forgive and meditate in order to really stay present with these tremendous changes that are happening.

Mars creates a trine to Saturn as well, and this brings a lot of perseverance. It allows you to really work very diligently on a project. If you take your work seriously, you're going to come into a very successful time, but it does take effort with Saturn. And so that is really the key to holding distractions at bay as you complete goals with dedication and with discipline.

And then we come to Venus. So the ruler of course of this Libra Solar Eclipse is Venus.

Venus sextile Mars gives you a strong desire for love and affection. It is bringing sensual pleasures to a high.

It's very much connected to social gatherings, going to cultural events, musical events, and also, if you're in an existing partnership, you're going to feel very deeply connected.

If you're entering a new relationship or dating, this is a wonderful time to go out around this Solar Eclipse.

And in fact, if you want to do it after, would be slightly better energetically. So after the 14th of October. You want to resolve any personal issues with people around this time as well, because you're able to - it's a great time to, to talk and to let go.

And finally it's very, very creative. So if you have a creative project, you're going to be very engaged with Mars sextile Venus.

And then finally, the ruler of this eclipse, Venus, is also opposite Saturn. So there's another opposition here. And that means you want to take advantage of some time alone.

Don't worry about any delays that come up, just focus on practical matters. Saturn really thrives on that - getting your ducks lined up in a row, getting creative projects accomplished, and taking responsibility for any tension in any of your relationships. Could be romantic, could be platonic, could be professional. It, it's important with Venus, the ruler of Libra, the sign of relationships opposite Saturn to really hone in on any tension that's there with anyone.

Lunar Eclipse (Full Moon Eclipse) in Taurus

Then we have the second Lunation. It's another eclipse! In this case, it's the Lunar Full Moon Eclipse in Taurus. The Sun is in Scorpio opposite the Moon in Taurus. They're at 5 degrees.

And this will be the final eclipse, I believe in Taurus and Scorpio. The rest of the eclipses now will move into Libra and Aries - cardinal signs - and they'll move away from the fixed signs.

So anyway, this one is the final one on the Scorpio and Taurus axis for a few years. So it is important, and it happens to be really very positive!

The Moon is conjunct Jupiter, which I absolutely love!

The moon at 5 degrees and Jupiter at 11 degrees in Taurus, and Jupiter is moving towards the Moon because it is in retrograde. So that brings a lot of happiness and kindness, blending an effortless sense of joy and bliss.

You just want to share your heart. You feel generous, you feel kind, you know that gifts and advantages are always around, that the universe is filled with abundance, and you feel that abundance, and you feel also recognized for who you truly are at Soul level.

So it brings a calming energy.

And this is a full moon eclipse. We want calming energy because full moons tend to stir up our emotions. So this is very welcome.

Also your focus on beauty and bounty, that that life is bountiful and beautiful is enhanced as well.

Now because the Moon is conjunct Jupiter, that means the Sun is opposite Jupiter.

And Jupiter is a benefic. So that means that oppositions and squares to Jupiter are not necessarily super challenging. It just means that they are activating this Jupiterian energy. So this opposition creates many opportunities for you to work towards outcomes that are successful. These are positive outcomes because your inner confidence is very enhanced.

Your financial gains can increase as well, as long as you're in service to others and have been in the past.

Things to watch out for with this opposition is wasting energy. So getting distracted, doing things that really don't matter very much, and and even can bring you down energetically. That is the wasting of energy, but also the wasting of money - also watch that with this opposition.

However, in general it really creates a very optimistic outlook on life and tremendous gratitude. And remember that gratitude is really the key to feeling joy and attracting success and abundance and fulfillment.

Now the Sun is conjunct Mercury and the Moon opposite Mercury. We have these two oppositions. So again, to reiterate, the Moon is conjunct Jupiter, the Sun is conjunct Mercury, the Sun is also conjunct Mars.

There is a Stellium in Scorpio where the Sun is located. That is very powerful. Mars is the ancient ruler, the original ruler of Scorpio. So this will really deepen us passionately and bring new beginnings in a way that might not be very visible yet, because Scorpio is more a sign that only shows its cards when it's completely ready.

The conjunction to Mercury though puts your focus on engaging fully with your ability to share a message, to communicate something profound. And in this case, because Mars is involved, you're going to communicate it with a lot of vigor.

And the conjunction with Mercury too - just like with the Libra eclipse, there was a conjunction with Mercury as well - it is very good for business negotiation and it allows you to, share your positive insights. This means that you're engaged with others in achieving your goals because of your ability to be very clear about what those goals are.

And finally, the sun and moon form a beautiful triad - a triangle to Saturn. So Saturn is at 0 degrees in Pisces, about to go direct again. It will end its retrograde at 0 degrees. Pisces. It will not dip into Aquarius. So it is now at 0 degrees - a powerful degree number, and it is creating a sextile to the Moon and trine to the Sun.

This sextile to the moon really helps you take your feelings seriously. Saturn always wants you to be responsible for whatever it is touching. In this case it is how you feel and your wellbeing. You have more self-control, your sense of duty comes naturally.

And so it's a wonderful day to just commit emotionally to what you feel, is currently giving you clarity, right?

It does give you clarity, actually this connection. So you will have that.

You also may feel more protective towards your family, your loved ones. The Moon does rule the home and family and you can share that practical encouragement and nourishment with family members.

And then the Sun trine Saturn helps you to experience really lovely results, due to prior dedication. So you can focus on achievement implementation, taking new responsibilities as well because it feels easy.

And it's a great time too to clear out closets. You can do a Spring cleaning in the Southern hemisphere, a an Autumn cleaning in the Northern Hemisphere.

So listen to and watch uplifting wise words and wisdom.

This is also about mentoring. You could be a mentor to younger people or to your clients in a really powerful way.

Then Venus, ruler of Taurus, and this is a Taurus lunar eclipse, is trine to Jupiter. And this is so amazing because the Moon is conjunct Jupiter! And Venus, the ruler of the eclipse is trine to Jupiter. This is what makes the lunar eclipse so beautifully positive because it just allows you to hone in on cheerfulness and goodness and optimism and having an expansive, very positive outlook on your future.

And it's beautiful for romance and dating.

It is wonderful for bringing any disharmony in any relationships back into balance.

Venus governs both love and financial flow in what you value.

And Jupiter governs expansion and wealth.

So this planetary meeting really enhances your ability to attract both.

It's a great time to make investments and it's a good time to take a holiday too. This eclipse happens on a Saturday, so maybe take a three-day weekend.

Venus, the ruler of this eclipse, is also opposite Neptune. And that means that love takes on a new meaning under this transit and idealism turns really towards a more spiritual nature. It is loving in a deeply spiritual way.

And so you're searching for what is beyond the ordinary. This is also enhanced by Taurus and Scorpio. So Scorpio loves going into the nuts and bolts, the core of the matter, which is not ordinary. It represents the quest for truth.

So, with Venus opposite Neptune it's important to just get clarity before you make a big commitment and really focus on spiritual pursuits.

And finally, Mercury is trine to Saturn and that gives you great powers of concentration, perseverance. Your mind is really thorough as you go through these deep philosophical ideas. You consider everything with a lot of patience and again, it favors business dealings.

So this is lovely energy in terms of the eclipse.

We have quite an amazing lineup in October with the number 8 and then two eclipses.

And the eclipses changing the signs from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra. It's like the changing of the guard really, where we have the first new sign on the 14th of October and then the final of the Taurus/Scorpio eclipses on the 28th. So it is like saying goodbye to one and hello to the other.

And it is so lovely that this second of the two eclipses, the Taurus Full Moon Eclipse, is so fortunate and feels so good.

Now it's time to look at the astrology and numerology in depth for every day in October.
