– Audio Transcript and Daily Guide –

Hello there, it's Tania Gabrielle Wealth Astro-Numerologist, Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for May, 2020.

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for April, 2021. This month we have a beautiful set of lunations - new moon and full moon - coupled with the number 9, the universal month Number for April, bringing such a focus on joy: joyful emotional expression.

Let's start with the universal month number for April. As you know, we're in a 5 universal year in 2021. And in April we'll be in a 9 universal month. 5 and 9 are the numbers that bring a lot of flexibility - we're shifting from one energy into another.

Whereas 5 is in the middle of all the single digits and shows a shift in perspective and an openness, it's like a mini new beginnings, the number 9 is an endings number, so it signifies that energy is culminating. And if you've done your due diligence, things are being expressed in a very dynamic way, in a very celebratory way.

Then there's also the aspect of getting rid of anything, even people who are keeping you down. So projects, ideas, beliefs, things that are bringing heaviness to your life. So it's a time to lighten up, let go, pay off debts, rid yourself of anything you don't need. It creates a powerful theme when the numbers 9 and 5 come together, because the energy is very unpredictable since it is all about letting go and welcoming the present moment.

So there's a sense of high creativity, exploration and looking at conflicts, bringing harmony to those. And as I said, reaping the rewards of the seeds that you have planted previously. So it can be a time of the fulfillment of dreams, but it's not a time necessarily to start something.

Now, of course, this is the universal number. So your personal code will reflect something differently, most likely. So we want to always have the personal code take precedent in general, the theme of not starting something is more akin to wrapping things up in a collective way, not necessarily launching a project or a website or anything like that.

9 is also a very emotional number. 9 is in the 3-6-9 triad of feeling. So heart-centered connection, listening to those subtle prompts and paying attention to your heart. It's really the spiritual heart. It is your inborn guidance system. Everyone has a guidance system though not everyone uses it to the same extent, but the heart is available to everyone.

And your guides, the beings on higher dimensions, will guide you at any moment if there's a point of contact in your heart, right? That's the body-mind- soul connection where messages are delivered, received, and understood.

And 9 represents unconditional love, so that spiritual heart is considered the Divine's command post within your human bias, that is the cradle, the seat of your intuition. And it's the main way that spiritual forces communicate okay with you. It's also the seat of higher emotions. So not the ones that are reactionary and egocentric, but the higher ones that, that are defined as love, unconditional love, compassion.

Your human emotions also help of course, but your human emotions stem from conditioned thoughts. And so the 9 is a very interesting number. It has a big circle at the top, which could either be a big head of ego or a big head of wisdom. So it reminds us of the difference.

It Reminds us to call out the illusions when the ego goes into that fake sense of reality, versus the realm of the divine - love, joy, peace compassion, which is our true nature. And those don't come from thoughts, right? They're ever present realities and it's up to us to experience them. All we have to do is tune into them. So 9 represents that beautiful connection.

So it's always an invitation for us to quiet down, because our mind when it's very busy, always doing something, running around, either literally physically or running around in circles, the monkey mind. So it's a reminder to really watch that.

So then let's move to the lunations.

The New Moon in Aries on Monday, April 12th, which will actually be April 11th in the Americas because it's 3:31 AM April 12th in Greenwich, England, which is the zero point for astrology, the universal time. So April 11th, April 12th.

And on this new moon, the sun and moon will be at 22 degrees, which is the "Architect of Peace" number. 22 reduces 4 and April, of course, is the fourth month.

It indicates that we take responsibility for our inner peace, our own inner landscape. The inner climate is really the one that allows us to either feel torn between one or the other thing or frazzled and distracted or in a place of peace and balance. And 22 is very much reminding us of that.

So since the new moon happens in the Americas on the 11th, we have two master numbers. The 11 being of course, living in presence in the here and now, and being intuitive and allowing our inner guidance system to be completely activated. The 22 master number is indicative of complete balance.

And so the combination of both of those master numbers (in the Americas) on a new moon in Aries, which is the first sign in the zodiac, is another invitation to begin that process and take it very seriously.

Now, the number 12 for April 12th is about learning. 12 is the student number and the number that is basically learning through joy, because 12 reduces to 3 and 3 is the number of joyful expression, uplifting others through anything that brings happiness and pleasure.

As for the contacts (transits) that are made by the sun and moon - there's a beautiful connection to Mars.

Mars is the ruler of this new moon in Aries. It creates almost an exact sextile to Mars. So that is another beautiful expression. We've had some wonderful lunations in March, and now we're going into April with the first one being again very, very positive. So that's a double sextile - Sun and Moon to Mars at 23 degrees in Gemini.

And then we have on the other side, a sextile to Jupiter, which is at 25 degrees in Aquarius -Jupiter being the planet of expansion and joy.

This is also extremely exciting since Jupiter and Mars form a trine. So there's a beautiful triangle that's created here. You can see beyond the horizon and understand that opportunities are everywhere. You feel good, you feel excited to start things (Mars, Aries).

And then we have a square to Pluto at 26 degrees in Capricorn. And that shows again the ongoing theme of change and transformation, rebirth and empowerment through the acceptance of change, which is indicative of the number 5 universal year, too. Right? You have the same theme that is basically being echoed in both the numbers and the stars here, which is often the case.

Those are the main aspects of, like I said, an incredibly exciting and very, very positive New Moon.

The second lunation is the Full Moon in Scorpio on April 27th, 4:31 AM in Greenwich, England.

So again, in the Americas, it will be April 26th at 11:31 PM on the East coast and 8:31 PM on the West coast, Pacific time.

This one has the Moon at 7 degrees Scorpio and the Sun at 7 degrees Taurus. The sun is conjunct merged with Uranus, which will be at that time at 10 degrees Taurus. So the theme of the unexpected, the letting go, the embracing of new ideas, the exploration is just continues.

Of course, Uranus will be in Taurus for several more years, but this full moon in Scorpio happens to have the Sun conjunct Uranus. So that's a big deal.

Now, we have two more planets in Taurus. We have the sun we have Uranus. We also have Venus the ruler of Taurus, conjunct mercury, also in Taurus. They're at 15 and 16 degrees respectively. This puts three personal celestial objects, the Sun, Mercury and Venus (ruler of Taurus) in that sign.

And all four are all opposite the moon.

So there's going to be a tension created in our personal life, as it relates to how we feel about love, money, how we speak, communication. The Sun reflects how we feel about our mission and Uranus reflects - do we feel free to explore everything in the way that that feels aligned at Soul level?

So all of that is going on, that tension means that we need to bring energy into harmony. And then on top of that we have a quadruple opposition to the moon in Scorpio, and Scorpio is ruled by Pluto.

We just had that square to Pluto in the previous lunation. And now we have the moon in Pluto's sign of Scorpio. So there is again a purging. And this purging theme is aligned to the number 9 universal month, the vibration of endings and letting go. So there'll be a lot of that. Expect that in your life.

When things feel like they've been explored to the point where they are no longer supporting you vibrationally, then just allow it to be released. No matter what it is - it can be an actual physical object, it can be a goal, a project, a person. So it's everything, a situation, a place where you reside, all of that.

So we have this quadruple opposition and then we have Saturn at 12 degrees in Aquarius. Now that creates a T-square. Meaning the Moon squares Saturn, and the Sun squares Saturn and so does Uranus with Venus and Mercury.

The T-square is extremely powerful because we have this bunching - the stellium of planets in Taurus - all creating a square to Saturn at 12 degrees Aquarius. And the moon in Scorpio on the opposite side as well.

Now, T squares are extremely dynamic. They really encourage us to act. So you really want to listen to that spiritual heart connection that we talked about earlier - your inborn guidance system - during this time, because there will be many opportunities to shift and act and take responsibility for and release the old habitual patterns.

Saturn also represents the past, so listen to the timing of things, since Saturn governs time.

And then finally, we have a beautiful trine to Mars from the Moon and a sextile to Mars from the Sun. This creates a very lovely triangle. Mars was beautifully aspected in the previous lunation. And now Mars has moved into Cancer at 2 degrees forming this lovely triangle with the Moon, the Sun, and also with Uranus. And that gives you a lot of courage, especially courage through the heart because Cancer is about how you feel.

So this adds a lovely theme that can be utilized in terms of the shifts that are taking place.

So that's the forecast for the Universal Month number and the New Moon and Full Moon in April. And now we're going to dive into the Astro-Numerology in detail for every day in April.
