Star Code for OCTOBER, 2021

– Audio Transcript and Daily Guide –

Hello everyone and welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for October, 2021.

This is such a big month. We have two powerful lunations - the Libra New Moon and Aries Full Moon, and all is happening in a 6 Universal Month.

So let's start with Universal Month number 6. What is six? 6 looks like a mother who is pregnant with a child. So it governs nurturing, love, home family, abundance and responsibilities, because that's what happens when you give birth to a child -- you have at least 18 years of tremendous responsibilities.

And even after that, you will always remain a parent. And the responsibilities come out of a sense of nurturing love and in a sense, allowing your own heart to merge with another so that you can resonate and have a frequency match with your child.

In the same way symbolically the number 6 allows you to really feel because 6 is in the self-expression and feeling triad in numerology - to really feel out your environment, the people you're with, whether they're family or not, close friends, colleagues, and sense how close you match with them. So that if there's a mismatch, you will feel disharmony.

6 is definitely a number of harmony and beauty. So you will be really feeling that out. And, it's not just people, like I said, it's your environment, but it's also ideas you're considering or directions you're considering. So it also governs health and it governs finances and friendships. And if they're not harmonious, then you may be challenged to change any of those.

So you'll be asked to express more, love, more compassion. Those are really the keywords. Help others since people will need you more, but you will also need to focus more on self care as a result, because the more you are needed, the more you need to also take care of you, so you stay in harmony and balance.

I love how the number 6 actually coincides with a month where the Sun is mostly Libra. We do start Scorpio later in October, but Libra is also about balance and harmony, and so it governs matching frequencies so that there is a balance in our life. Along with the responsibility in general, there's more responsibility with family with home.

Personal growth is really big with the number 6. It's Just a really big month to love and to have compassion.

So having said that we're going to move to the two lunations, which are very much about Mars. Mars is making an incredible splash in October, the New Moon in Libra on October 6th.

So there'll be a double 6:6 energy of love and everything we just talked about.

So this is really the beginning of a major feeling within us of how we deal with friction, how we deal with a very strong directional force. Do we resist it? Do we go with it? How do we deal with people who are aggressive, impatient?

We're going to be diving much more deeply into our resources to handle that kind of energy because Mars is very direct and really doesn't take no for an answer.

Being very conscious of your response to that kind of energy, whether you align with the topic or person or not, is important.

Let's look at the incredibly dynamic Libra New Moon! Exact on October 6.

It has the Sun, Moon merged at 13° Libra, exactly conjunct Mars at 13° Libra and all three forming a stellium which points to Uranus at 13° Taurus!

Taurus and Libra are BOTH ruled by VENUS!

Libra is ruled by VENUS which governs Love and Abundance.
October, 2021 is a 6 Universal Month which also governs Love and Abundance.

6 looks like a mother who is pregnant with a child. So it governs nurturing, love, home family, abundance and responsibilities.

6 is in the self-expression feeling triad in numerology
6 is definitely a number of harmony and beauty.
6 also governs health and abundance and friendships.

And if they're not harmonious, then you may be challenged to change that.

So you'll be asked to express more, love more, have more compassion.

People will need you more, but you will also need to focus more on self care as a result because the more you are needed, so you stay in harmony and balance.

And I love how the number six actually coincides with a month that is mostly in the sign of Libra.

Libra is also about balance and harmony.

And so it there are matching frequencies to create balance in our life.

The NEW MOON is on October 6th.

So there'll be a double six energy of love

This is really the beginning of a major feeling within us of how we deal with friction, how we deal with a very strong directional force.

Mars is conjunct this New Moon, firing up the energy.

Do we resist it? Do we go with it? How do we deal with people who are aggressive, impatient?

We're going to be diving much more deeply into our resources to handle that kind of energy because Mars is very direct and really doesn't take no for an answer.

And so being very conscious of your response to that kind of energy, whether you align with the topic or person or not is important.

With Sun, Moon and Mars all at 13° Libra – it sets up a triple 13 code and 13 is the number of the divine feminine.

So it is literally bringing into balance.

This is in Libra after all the sacred masculine and divine feminine energy Libra is ruled by Venus, the divine feminine planet, and 13 is the number of the divine feminine.

And then we have this Stellium with Mars.

In fact, the stellium includes Mercury at 20 degrees Libra.

It's a really big moment here, as we look at how we process our responses, our communication, what we say, the language we use in the context of very intense energy.

Now this New Moon is opposite to Chiron, which is at 10 degrees in Aries. We're looking to heal through how we relate to others and the world around us.

Libra is an air sign. As an air sign Libra also governs the communication that we have with others, and Mercury – planet of communication - is in retrograde in Libra during this New Moon.

So we really want to ponder and reflect before we speak. Whereas Mars never does that. Mars just wants to forge ahead and say it as it is, whether it's just words of encouragement or words of aggression.

So it's good that Mercury is retrograde. because it will bring that ability to take a moment, take a breath before the speaking or the writing starts.

This opposition to Chiron shows there's tremendous healing going on in regards to anything to do with Mars.

We also have an exact quincunx to Uranus, which is amazing because Uranus is exactly at 13 degrees Taurus.

So it sets up a quadruple 13 code, because Uranus is participating in the number 13 rebirth here and Uranus of course IS the planet of breakthroughs.

We are talking the quest for freedom and liberation is incredibly strong.

Libra even ties into the word Liberty.

Uranus really rebels against the status quo. It's almost the opposite expression of Saturn.

Uranus and Saturn are in a square pretty much all year long – it's pretty wide right now, it's about seven degrees apart, but it's still happening.

And it still is a major theme and the most important theme in many ways of 2021.

So basically the square brings tension. There is a real call to balance out having boundaries, which is Saturn - having organization and order and plans versus also having the freedom to change plans and break through if it seems too stale - or whether to adhere and cling to a familiar and past way of doing things.

This theme is going on in a big way.

The fact that Uranus, is in an exact inconjunct, which is 150 degrees, to Mars, Moon, and Sun at 13 degrees Libra creates a sense of liberation here from any dogmatic approach or ways of being that put you in a box.

Breaking through anything that is limiting you is a big theme.

Having a rebirth is another big theme because of the number 13.

Very exciting.

Moon Created by

Now let's move on to the second Mars moment. And this one is that really the big kahuna Mars moment! This lunation is all about Mars, Pluto and the Sun and Moon.

It's the Full Moon in Aries on October 20th. This is a really intense Full Moon. The ruler of Aries, Mars, is opposite the Moon and conjunct the Sun while the sun and moon and Mars are all squaring Pluto. That's really strong, propulsive and intense energy.

So all three of these are forming a square to Pluto which is at 24 degrees in Capricorn.

Now that is extremely powerful, volatile energy, and it follows a day after Mercury stations direct.

And in fact, within an approximately two-week period, we have several planets that will station direct. So this is the beginning of that time. Pluto stationed direct the day of the Libra New Moon. Saturn and Jupiter will have stationed direct already, and Mercury too.

So the forward momentum, in other words, which aligns very much with Mars / Aries energy, is going to be speeding up things rapidly.

It coincides with that shift in the outer planets moving direct.

And what this means is there's going to be a very heightened energy, which needs to be channeled somehow into a, a project or a decision or a way of being that is super creative.

Mars does govern your instinct. When the Sun is conjunct Mars, you can apply your imagination and instinct to release the fire.

It's a very fiery moment here, so exercising and being very physical to just release the tension will be very important definitely throughout the month. Especially as we move towards this Aries full moon, you want to guard against aggressiveness, against impulsive behavior and impatience, any hot temper, anything that triggers you. Just leave the room and do what you need to do, but don't let it out on others. Your instinct is incredibly powerful.

Now the moon opposite Mars, means you feel a lot of emotional focus, you feel direction, but you need to guard against emotional aggression. The moon is very much about how you feel and in an opposition to Mars, you can really channel your energy into an ambitious project and make a lot of progress, but you may feel impulsive. You may feel impatient, you may just lash out emotionally, if you're triggered.

This energy is extremely creative and it will help you be very conscious of where you're headed and where you want to head. So just be very careful about the rashness. Act on your feelings, but in a very positive way.

Now, the big, big thing here is the T-square to Pluto. As you probably realize, Mars is the original ruler of Scorpio. Pluto is the modern ruler of Scorpio.

And so we have this Scorpio energy of the truth being revealed, right? The Scorpion has the stinger and goes straight to the core essence of anything and reveals what needs to be seen that was formerly hidden.

So when we have a T-square from the Moon in Aries opposite the the Sun and Mars in Libra with Mars being the ruler of Aries, sparks can fly. If it's lower vibrational, it definitely fires you up, and can lead to tremendous separation and aggression.

But the positive expression is about achievement. That inner tension that arises from this T-square of these two planetary rulers to Scorpio, which is the sign that rules the 8th house in astrology, and is very much about power and channeling that power in a way that is healthy, is also about financial flow.

So there's a lot of things in the financial world that are impacted at this time. And October can often be a time for financial shifts in the market. This definitely has the potential for stirring things up in a big way. You can put this to good use as a business endeavor. Remember when things seem challenging, there are always opportunities. The silver lining happens every time we have a change, which is the natural part of life, right? There's actually more opportunity during that time.

So either way, you're going to feel very courageous and confident and you'll be able to step up.

What you need to concentrate on totally is the focus on the achievement of your goals for optimal results.

If you feel energy pushing back at you, which it very likely can do with this kind of incredibly intense and fiery T square -- and remember, Pluto is in Capricorn and Capricorn was the sign that started it all off in January, 2020, that big stellium that 500 year event...Pluto is still in that sign and will be for two to three more years -- so if you feel that energy pushing back at you, then you can transform the situation vibrationally. You're able to alchemize the situation through magnetism, by just feeling tremendously and physically very empowered.

The Mars / Aries energy is very much about how you feel in your body. So pay attention to what the subtle senses in your body are conveying to you.

But as you already know, there are going to be things uncovered that were not a part of our consciousness before - things that have been held back. This will help set the record straight. And that will come as a result of this full moon in Aries.

Mars and Aries do govern your natural instinct, so can discover how to use that instinct, how to really tune into your direct line to Source in order to feel emotionally empowered versus engaging in emotional power struggles, right?

So the more conscious and self-aware, you are of both lightness and darkness, which are part of our experience on Earth, the greater your perception of energy and your ability to read people, to read situations, to be able to intuitively gauge what decisions, what direction to go in based on the decision that you're making.

That excitement about actually moving forward comes from a place of patience and a place of deep breathing. So those are very important at this time.

Pluto always brings deep discoveries. And so this rebirth energy, this life-death-rebirth energy is really continuing the theme of surrender that's being laid out, with this Pisces Full Moon at the end of September. And it's really leading into a time of incredible intensity.

With the number 8 in play too - 6 is an emotional number - you want to truly trust your intuition, not get into the emotional reactive state.

So again, be sure to breathe a lot. Breathe deeply. Do breathing exercises and meditation. Get more rest. Definitely let go of by-gones. That is part of the Pluto energy - letting go and just forgetting. Forgetting if somebody is aggressive towards you. Or if you feel an aggressive energy, then you immediately let go of it. You definitely don't want to react - that goes without saying.

I'm just reiterating it for the purposes of this full moon in Aries, because it can trigger you in some way. And so you want to just be prepared, so that you're not going down that rabbit hole.

So yes, it's going to be a tremendous month, a month to remember on so many levels.

And you can take this energy and make lemonade out of it. If you just stay on the positive side of the fire, right? And allow it to fire you up instead of burn you up.

So this is really the whole reason we love Astro numerology is, it allows us to be prepared. It allows us to have foresight and foreknowledge, so that we can navigate these incredible moments with much greater ease and wisdom!

So let's now go and see how the month just unfolds from the first through the 31st of October with the Star Code for each day,
