Star Codes for SEPTEMBER, 2021

– Audio Transcript and Daily Astro-Numerology Guide –

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for September, 2021.

As usual, I am so excited to share the astrology numerology developments in this powerful monthly forecast.

September, every year, is very special because it's the ninth month. And in numerology, when you add 9 to any number, it reduces to the same single digit. So in this case, we are in a 5 universal year in 2021, and September is the 9th month. We add $9+5 = 14$, and then add $1+4 = 5$.

So we have a double 5 energy and a 14 energy for September. And so that means - yes, we've undergone so much change in the astrology with Uranus and the 13 universal month in August and with Aquarius energy. But now we're entering a double 5:5 in September, and it's really the high point of the year when September comes around in the numerology code.

5 is really about freedom and liberation, cutting loose, going with the flow and making quick decisions, taking a risk. And following the whole protocol right now, which is the extrication from the old ways, the old themes, paradigms and being so present that you are not adhering to any old habits at all. That's really a difficult one because we are habitual beings. So we don't like when things change up like that.

But in September, we're definitely going to be asked to really look within a lot. As you may know, from my Star Codes podcasts, we have all of the slow moving planets now in retrograde:

Uranus stationed retrograde two days before the Aquarius full moon on August 22nd and joined Pluto, Neptune, Chiron, Saturn and Jupiter. So that's a big deal. It means the introspection and listening within to your inner climate, as opposed to being impacted so much by the outer scenery that's coming our way (which is, you know, difficult to ignore), but it's not necessarily at all to ignore what's going on, but to really go within, to stay in that calm place.

So in September, the news will be even more powerful because 14, which is the Universal Month number for September, governs media. It is the number of the scribe. So whatever personal news you're getting - or in a sense it's not just the news, it's the info, it's the stream of consciousness - that data that's coming through, the experiences that are just coming one after the next, being in a place where you can move very calmly.

So in this case, think of the signs that are Earth signs that are very much activated now. Virgo due to the sun being in Virgo now and Taurus, where Uranus has been and will be for the next few years. Those two earth signs are very grounding, balanced signs. So we are always supported to be able to handle and navigate whatever events come our way situations come our way.

The keyword for the numbers 5 and 14 is change. 5 sits on a rocker. It faces left at the bottom right at the top. So symbolically it symbolizes a pivot point. There is going to be a sense of that, not just in September, but the whole year is a 5. And so the whole year is a pivot point in 2021. So there'll be even more surprises.

You may feel more restless, more impatient, but on the other hand, if you jump in with two feet, it's a great time to move forward and take that risk, as long as you're not impulsive, right? So refrain from being reactionary.

You can make a lot of changes in a very constructive way. No matter what, you're going to have to make some choices, some decisions that require you to act pretty fast. It's a very exciting year, very exciting month. And that means people are important with the number 5 - that's part of the excitement is connecting with people who you resonate with and also meeting people.

It's also about movement. Doing more traveling or any kind of movement physical movement. So yeah, it's basically the way of moving forward through excitement, through adventure, through liberation.

So we have that theme, and then we have the number 14 show up again in the first lunation - even in the second lunation! And that is Uranus. Uranus is at 14 degrees. Uranus stationed retrograde at 14 degrees, and will be at 14 degrees for a long time. And we happen to be entering a 14 universal month while Uranus, the planet of the moment, is on that same degree number. So this is a very big deal.

In the New Moon in Virgo on September 6th (Americas) and 7th (Universal Time), not only is Uranus at 14 degrees, but the Sun and Moon will be at 14 degrees in Virgo as well!

So you can see how the universe is really bringing home this number, the number of communication, the scribe, sharing, talking, writing, like I said, news data, info, very powerful series of numbers here.

In fact, it sets up a code of five 5's because we have the 14 universal month, 14 degrees Uranus, 14 degrees Sun, 14 degrees Moon, and a 5 universal year. So that's five 5's, since 14 reduces to the "root number" 5! Easy to remember.

That basically means anything goes., Virgo is an Earth sign, so Virgo will hold you close. Virgo will say, cross all your T's dot all your I's, be super clear on whatever your info is, that it is supported by actual raw data.

It's also such an amazing moment because the Sun and Moon are exactly trine to Uranus - like I said, all at 14 degrees.

The trine is a very positive harmonious aspect. It allows your imagination to flow, to be open to the unusual, to act on your instinct, to really allow those surprises help you create breakthroughs and to allow your genius, your inner geniuw to express itself. So the versatility is fantastic. The being inquisitive and open to unique perspectives is greatly heightened. Your higher intelligence helps you understand and connect the dots in many ways. And there is a sense of curiosity, wanting answers, getting a critical missing link, really exciting.

Other transits during the Virgo New Moon are that Mars trines Pluto. And that trine is actually exact during this Virgo new moon. Mars and Pluto are both at 24 degrees, Pluto in Capricorn, retrograding, and Mars in Virgo. So that gives a lot of goal-directed energy with this trine.

Pluto and Mars are really the coal rulers or Scorpio, so there's a depth to this - very harmonious - directing your energy towards whatever goals you have, so you can achieve them. Pluto transforms. It does tie into the whole change theme that we're experiencing, but with Pluto, it is deep unconscious - those things that we haven't seen - that come to the surface.

So with the trine to Mars you feel even in control, because Pluto not only governs power, but the trine to Mars allows you to feel very magnetic and empowered and very conscious and confident.

This is a very truth-telling time as well, very exciting in so many ways.

There are other transits as well - Mercury opposite Chiron, really magical, very much about looking at how your thoughts impact your health. So guarding against overthinking and just expressing healing words, as opposed to words that are damaging or ill thought out. Be very clear about the power of language.

We also have Mercury trine Saturn, which gives you great powers of concentration and patience in how you communicate.

So all of these are supporting this fast flowing energy.

Venus also makes a couple of transits during this New Moon in Virgo. Venus is square to Pluto and Venus is trine to Jupiter. The trine to Jupiter is obviously extremely positive. Lovely. They're both the benefic planets, Venus, and Jupiter. So when they're in a trine, it is absolutely beautiful harmonious energy - very loving, great for financial flow.

Venus square Pluto really impacts also your relationships and really looking at - are the relationships loving? And in a healthy relationship the attractor factor is very much enhanced.

And the creativity is amazing with Venus square Pluto, where you sit down and write, or sit down and compose or whatever you're creating, painting - there's a tension there through the square that really brings you very deeply into your creative process, which is also very lovely.

I neglected to mention with the two Mercury transits, that mercury is the ruler of Virgo. So anything that happens to Mercury - in this case, Mercury opposite Chiron and Mercury trine Saturn - is heightened as well.

So then we move to the second lunation, and that is the Full Moon in Pisces with the Sun in Virgo at 28 degrees. 28 a critical degree in astrology. So it's more intense. That happens on September 21st, 2021 and sets up at double 21 code.

Keep that in mind, we have the double 5 in September, and then we have a double 21 with this full moon in Pisces and 5 and 3 (21 reduced 3) are the two numbers that sit on a rocker and are very open. So there's, again a sense of expansiveness here and truth as well - 21 is the number of truth and joy. So that's all very exciting.

As for the Full Moon, it happens at 12:55 AM in universal time in London. That means it is on September 20th in the Americas. What we have is there's a very wide conjunction to Neptune (and Neptune is the ruler of Pisces) from the Moon at 28 degrees and Neptune at 21 degrees, but it still is a conjunction. So there's a watery theme here. It is very mystical, spiritual and open. Meaning there can be a sense of not being sure which direction to go, because you can go any direction with this. So it really helps rely on your intuition - very important to do so.

Also it's important to be near water, drink more water, allow tears to flow - happy tears, sad tears, whatever tears are there. Also a lovely way to generate healing.

And then some other transits we have are that Mercury - and of course the Sun is in Virgo and Mercury rules Virgo - Mercury has two transits.

It has an exact trine to Jupiter, which I love. I mean, this is just so beautiful to have the ruler of where the Sun is for this full moon trine to Jupiter. It brings a lot of optimism, a lot of good news, and there's just a sense of that you have this exciting journey, and getting this journey going is exciting, and I don't necessarily only mean travel. But there's a progressive open-mindedness here, that bodes well for business as well - negotiation, signing contracts, organizing anything, doing a Spring cleaning (in the Southern hemisphere), Autumn cleaning in the Northern hemisphere. This is very exciting.

And the Full Moon happens literally two days before or the Equinox on the 23rd of September. So there's a sense of really beautiful balance here.

And then Mercury also creates a square to Pluto that is more about deep thinking - intense conversations, intense research of a topic or idea, really going to the outer bounds of everything that you're doing. So out of bounds with how you are investigating something. But without force... remember Pluto rules, power. So you don't want to forcefully try to convince others or be critical or create conflict. It's important to not go to that side when you communicate and connect with others.

The square can be challenging. And in this case, what you are thinking about may be challenged, so there could be a personal looking at, "well, my ideas about this particular subject may not have been completely correct based on the latest data that I'm getting."

Virgo is very detailed. The Sun is in Virgo. So there can be a lot of research and then digging deeper, investigating the truth of the matter, and then uncovering mysteries things that you didn't understand before and bringing those to the surface. So that can also happen.

We have the Sun trine Pluto and the Moon sextile Pluto. Again, there is this sense of the courage and the confidence being wonderful. The intensity of the experience is very, very deep. You are really being driven to investigate topics - that is going to be huge at this time.

There's a lot of Pluto energy here, and the Virgo impact is huge for dotting all T's and crossing all I's. Pluto rules letting go. So it's, it's also about elimination. Like I said, great for Spring or Autumn cleaning, getting away the clutter, not just in your surroundings, but in your mind. And resolving any issues that need resolving, both professionally and personally. Studying things, studying astrology, for example, studying numerology, looking at personal transformation, this is all Sun trine Pluto stuff.

All right, so let's move to the forecast for every day of September!
