Star Code for OCTOBER 2022

– Audio Transcript and Daily Guide –

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for October, 2022!

We'll start with October's Universal month number of 7.

7 is one of those numbers that can bring a lot of gifts because it activates our intuition and at the same time, it asks us to pull back a little bit and, and take a time out and not go full steam forward with activity.

7 is the sabbatical number - it doesn't mean that you won't get anything done and basically have to take a month off. It basically means you want to slow down and make sure you create windows of time to rejuvenate your soul and focus on your inner spiritual life.

Now, in the external 7 can come across as sudden events because it represents the lightning strike of intuition.

So in 3D for external events, it can manifest as the unexpected. So be aware of that.

And we're in a 6 universal year number in 2022. So those unexpected events would somehow touch our heart or be connected to anything related to our family, to nurturing, to also abundance. 6 governs abundance as well.

And so if there is a change, because there's lots of change energy in October, also in the astrology, because the eclipses begin, then just go with the flow. Just be very, very open to it.

And of course you're prepared because you now know.

7 governs nature. So anytime you can get outside, whether you're in the northern or southern hemisphere, it's hopefully a good time of year for you to get out and really partake in nature to get away from the hustle and bustle. It's really, really important.

And also I want to remind you that October is every year a preview of the next year's universal year number.

So October in 2022 is a 7 universal month. Well, in 2023 we will be moving into a 7 universal year. And that's why I always launch my Ultimate Yearly Forecast in October because we're already tuning into that frequency of the next year and the code is already starting to germinate within us. So look out for that. I actually will be releasing it in the second week of October and I'm super excited because of what's coming up next year - a very pivotal year with Pluto and also the major dynamics that are culminating the following year in 2024.

So it's almost like a "bridge into a new world kind of year" next year.

So the other thing is that it's not the biggest time for social activities when we're under the number 7. And again, your own code could indicate something completely different. So it will be a balance between the collective sense of - we're not going to be actively social - to being more spiritual. And also mental, like reading is very much covered. Books are covered by the number 7.

But if your personal code indicates something else, then of course that is a balance that you can strike.

So then let's move to the two lunations. Like I said, the eclipses are starting, so we're going to be really ramping it up.

The first lunation is the Full Moon in Aries, and it is exact on October 9th at 9:55 PM Universal Time, which is 4:55 PM Eastern, 1:55 PM Pacific.

This full moon is very dynamic.

It has a quadruple opposition. The sun and moon need to be opposite each other for the full moon to take place. So the moon is in Aries, the sun in Libra.

But what we also have is - Venus is conjunct the Sun and Chiron is conjunct the Moon. So this creates a quadruple opposition, which really is going to call us into balance.

And because the Sun will be right in the middle of its Libra journey at 16 degrees Libra and conjunct Venus, the ruler of Libra and Libra governs balance and harmony.

This opposition will truly be calling us into a place of harmony and balance in a very big way.

And through Venus, that is through beauty, love, pleasure, abundance, what we value, our intimate relationships.

And through Chiron is the sacred healer. Chiron heals through love. So we have a huge love theme for this full Moon in Aries.

And of course Aries is ruled by Mars. And Mars is very much about passion, the passionate side of love, very much into new beginnings and forward momentum.

And Mars is creating a beautiful Grand Trine. So Mars, the ruler of this Aries Full Moon, is creating a beautiful Grand Trine with the Sun and Saturn.

This is actually huge because Saturn is in early October forming its last square to Uranus. This was ongoing all through 2021 and now it's culminating one last time.

They're both going to be at 18 degrees.

And so here Mars is coming in and Mars is always the initiating energy, the forward momentum energy. It triggers action and creates this gorgeous, harmonious grand trine with the Sun in Libra and Saturn in Aquarius.

So this is an air sign trine and air is very connected to moving forward.

Air is very objective, so it allows us to extricate ourselves emotionally from any drama and really get a bird's eye view.

That is going to be very helpful because there could be a lot of things stirred up this month due to the code in both the numbers and the stars.

And so this grand trine is showing you, "hey, you have this wonderful ability to lift yourself above the whatever trigger there is, drama there is, and really just get a wonderful objective perspective which comes from observation.

The air signs are wonderful at observing so this is very, very good news and very helpful because this quadruple opposition is going to create tension that needs to have an outlet.

We also have a square from Mars to Neptune. That will ask you to take extra time to rest and not exert too much energy so you can replenish and renew. So that will be important.

And of course the number 7 for October is really reiterating that same theme.

Mercury is trine to Pluto and that is actually really beautiful.

Pluto is at 26 degrees in Capricorn. Mercury is at 28 degrees in Virgo. So yeah, that's a beautiful trine to also help us with intuition.

When Mercury and Pluto get together, it's amazing for our capacity to just understand, perceive, intuit, go deeply, use our psychic abilities.

And let's see if there's anything else here. Moon sextile Mars, we already looked at that. It just gives us a lot of emotional focus and direction and passion and enthusiasm.

So the thing to mention, again, Saturn square Uranus will be very close during this full moon, and though it's not at precise exactitude, they're going to be 37 minutes apart, which is half a degree. So it is almost exact.

And they're sitting there for gosh, two weeks basically in early October. And that activates the themes of freedom and responsibility, breakthroughs and boundaries, which we've had all through 2021 and now come to ahead for the final time in October 2022 and really for the rest of the year, because they're slow-moving planets and will be in each other's neighborhood regarding the square for at least two to three more months. So that is something to keep in mind.

Partial New Moon Solar Eclipse in Scorpio

So let's now go to the second lunation, and that is the Partial Solar New Moon Eclipse in Scorpio.

So this is the first of two eclipses.

(The second eclipse is a full moon in Taurus, and that will be in November, I believe on November 8th.)

But this partial solar new moon eclipse in Scorpio happens (oh, I should have said the full moon eclipse in Taurus - excuse me, the Sun is in Scorpio, the Moon in Taurus. So that will be in November 8th.

But this is a partial solar new moon eclipse in Scorpio and it happens at 2 degrees Scorpio.

And what's so stunning about this one is that Venus is exactly conjunct the new Moon.

Venus will also be at 2 degrees Scorpio.

Again, this is very early in the sign and really launches the Scorpio experience this year. And it's actually in many ways, a new moon that has some beautiful aspects because of the Venus impact.

I mean, Venus really just came through a major month of having huge transits during the Lunations that we had while the sun was in Libra.

And of course Venus rules Libra.

And now Venus continues with this huge impact at the end of October. And what's fantastic is that the Sun and Moon and Venus all create a Quincunx to 0° Jupiter in Aries.

And a quincunx to Jupiter - like any contact with Jupiter is wonderful because it intensifies something in a bigger way and brings happiness and joy and expansion to the equation.

In this case, the equation is Sun, Moon, Venus in Scorpio, which goes to the depth of love, the depth of abundance, the depth of just sheer pleasure and beauty.

And so this is wonderful for prosperity. It's something you can really take advantage of because it'll be very strong. Jupiter will be again at the very beginning of Aries. It's retrograding currently. It's going to dip briefly into Pisces one more time. But this is really super exciting to see this.

We also have a trine from the Stellium - Sun, Moon and Venus - to Mars. And Mars is the ruler of the sign that Jupiter is in.

So there's new beginnings energy in this New Moon Eclipse that's going to again, lift you up and allow you to really feel relieved and sense that forward momentum again.

Now, Pluto the ruler of Scorpio is very important to always look at the ruler and Pluto is actually in a square to Mars. So let me look at this Pluto actually is not in a square to Mars. Pluto is in a quincunx to Mars which really intensifies the Scorpio experience.

Mars is the former ruler, the initial original ruler of Scorpio and Pluto the modern ruler of Scorpio. So when they come together in a quincunx, which is 150 degrees, you really want to be focused on how you use power and guard against expressing yourself in overpowering ways.

Because we have a lot of Scorpio here at once. And the quincunx needs to be harmonized.

So you want to always explore every side of the equation, every side of the matter before jumping in. And not get emotional or overpowering.

The good thing about this particular quincunx is that you'll be uncovering mysteries and investigating situations to the core of the truth.

So you can dive into situations that formally were off limits or they were a secret or they just weren't available, and you can make them conscious.

That's what Pluto and Scorpio do. So you want to keep your mind very open and flexible.

Focus on those things that really ignite you in a passionate way.

Just don't react in an emotional way to situations that trigger you.

So those are really the main aspects. I'm going to look here and see if there's anything else. Yes we have Mars square to Neptune and I believe we already know that that means that you need to take a time out.

We had the same square in the previous Full Moon in Aries, and it basically means in the month of October that you need to take extra time for rest and not exert an over amount of energy so you can replenish and renew.

So now it's time to dive into the Astro numerology for every day in October.
