Star Code for AUGUST, 2020

– Audio Transcript and Daily Astro-Numerology Guide –

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for August, 2020!

So let's begin with the Universal Month Number for August, 2020 which adds up to a 12 universal month.

12 is the number of the student, of listening, learning and using meditation to integrate what it is that is shifting within you that is creating a growth spurt within you. 12 is related to education - education on all levels, from physical to mental to emotional to spiritual.

So you are achieving a lot of knowledge, a lot of truth, a lot of wisdom this month, and it is helping you to find solutions. You just need to understand that the solutions, especially now in 2020, are based on listening and looking within. Not necessarily to turning to outside resources, unless you feel compelled from within to do so.

And when you pay attention to that spiritual and intuitive education, you ultimately will be successful. So this is the month to realize how your thoughts, your intentions create your reality. That being an eternal student means what you actually consciously intend to focus on is going to happen is going to create the space you're in.

So if your life isn't flowing well, notice how you're thinking. Notice how you're focusing on certain things, how you're listening to certain things, how you're making decisions to partake in certain experiences and change those change. Your point of view, change your attention on those things.

Like I said, meditation is very, very important. And so is a focus on what brings you joy because the number 12 reduces to 3, and 1 plus 2 equals 3.

So the joyful aspect is very important. 3 is about sharing what you love in a creative way and uplifting others.

It's important to make a point of getting outside. If you can take a trip to the country, go to the ocean, read up on something that relaxes you, that inspires you, that is philosophical. Listen to beautiful meditative music. This will help you let go of worries, which are actually keeping you stuck in past patterns and not allowing you to grow, not allowing you to learn a student has to be present.

If you're stuck in the past, you're going to worry about the future. And those fears are going to infect what it is you focus on. So the whole point of this cycle is to become very conscious about your presence as a being that is always connected to the universe. And, if it is your choice to separate from that connection through the loss of memory regarding who you really are - because you are a being of light, you come from the light, you returned to the light, but you can choose to feel like you are separated from the light - that is then an a way to end a learning process that is easy and choose a learning process that is more difficult because you're going against the grain.

Again, it is your choice, but as a result, many of your experiences then will be confronting. And if they are confronting, look at your shadow side, this is all part of being the student - to confront what it is that is bringing conflict into your life because you can settle those things.

You can clear that energy now. Just observe what's happening, remain calm. Don't judge it, and this ability to be wise and see the truth and let it go will create a tremendous serenity and trust within you.

So it is important to go with the flow, to listen to what's coming towards you, and also to create the space for you to be in a place of a student in eternal student and to accept and not resist what it is you find.

Then we move to the two Lunations. What we have is very interesting. Remember, July was an 11 universal month in 2020.

And on the 3rd of August, we have a Full Moon in Aquarius that happens at 11 degrees. So it's taking the double new beginnings energy from July into a new beginnings energy with the Sun in Leo and the Moon in Aquarius.

This is very, very important because Leo is ruled by the Sun.

Leo represents the light of the sun and Aquarius is the age that we're entering right now.

So the moon being in the actual sign of the next 2000 years, the galactic consciousness sign of breakthroughs, moving to beyond third dimensions into multidimensions. This is being activated in a big way through the 11, 11 portal. And what 11 ultimately means is to be supremely present so that you actually can be in the light and be a person who is connected to the light.

The word light itself in the Pythagorean system adds up to 29, which is an 11.

So we have really beautiful code here of remembering that we all come from the light and even the darkness is searching for light, even though it may not seem that way. Sometimes, you know, when we're around dark energy, dark energy wants to pull us down into the darkness, but it's only to be connected to the light which we represent.

So there's a whole powerful code here that's being activated with this full moon in Aquarius that we really need to pay attention to because it is a life-changing full moon.

The reason I say that too, is because there's a T square - a 90 degree angle that's being formed from the Sun to Uranus and the Moon to Uranus. So it's a triangle because the moon and Sun are opposite each other, forming this T square to Uranus at 10° Taurus.

Uranus is the ruler of Aquarius. So it's enhanced during a Full Moon in Aquarius, it's home sign.

To have a T square to the ruler of the full moon means the excitability factor is even more accentuated. There's more change in play. There's more upheaval. And basically there's going to be a sense of taking change to another level.

What we need to remember is to stay in the light, to stay in that 11, where we're not divided. Because the shadow side of 11 is to feel incomplete and a sense of division, right? Where the two 1's that form that gateway are separated from each other instead of coming together.

If you think of a hand in prayer, it's two 1s coming together in union.

And so we want that unification of the opposites during this very powerful full moon, and Uranus square to the full moon is going to bring opportunities to stay in that center of the hurricane. So relying on your intuition at all times, which is what Uranus represents, knowing that things are going to move quickly because air is being cleared rapidly.

Lots of things are being cleared rapidly. That means we need to really be very in tune with our intuitive connection to Source. And it also means that we want to immerse ourselves in activities that stimulate us.

Are you aware that the creativity you feel at this time is real, it's palpable. You want to guard against being impulsive and being reactionary, because there may be triggers anytime there's sudden change, there can be a trigger as well. So you don't want to fall for that energy, right? You want to stay in a place of inner serenity.

Also during this full moon, we have - to balance out this very exciting energy - we have a very calming energy. The universe always has a way to channel the solution to any tension that there is.

In this case, the Sun trines Chiron and the Moon sextiles Chiron. And it's very beautiful this energy with Chiron, because Chiron represents that sacred healing energy, where we're naturally aware of our inner power to heal, of our inner power to change anything in our life.

Chiron is also aligned with healing through love. So knowing that love is the only reality and everything else is an illusion. Separation is an illusion, right? It's a temporary separation. It's a forgetfulness that we are all one.

So when the Sun and Moon form this beautiful triangle to Chiron, it means love is in the air. You're being healed by the power of compassion. And you're being reminded that to allow your heart to feel tender, to feel sensitive and to be very connected to the vibration of people in your life, to feel that vibration and to feel that compassion and to be very open to emotional healing, those emotional connections that we make through love are the most powerful thing we have is - unconditional love, not conditional love, not - if you don't believe in what I believe then, you're not worth loving, right?

That that's not how the universe works. A mother accepts all her cubs, no matter how they show up, and learns to mother each one in a different way.

So this is again, another part of the whole awakening process that we're all going through, and this full moon has pretty much every ingredient of the big shift in its code itself.

Then we have another very powerful transit that's activated during this Aquarius full moon. And that is that Mercury is exactly opposite to Saturn, which is quite amazing. Like exactly 27 degrees and 27 is the number of unconditional love.

Mercury is in Cancer and of course, Saturn retrograded back into its own sign of Capricorn. So we're being again, confronted with the letting go of the old paradigms, the old ways of thinking. Mercury, how we approach our ideas about life, is being stripped away. It's being balanced. We have a lot of concentration for serious analyzation and serious conversation and deepening our studies and doing in-depth research on whatever it is we need to focus on in order to set ourselves free from that fear.

So what I wouldn't do during an opposition of Mercury and Saturn is to make big decisions because your thoughts may be at odds with your plans. So the thoughts, Mercury, may be at odds with the planning process, which is Saturn. It's not the best time to just decide something that is a major investment or contract, whatever it may be.

What you do want to do is be very patient, cross all T's, dot all I's. Be diligent and persevere and seek serene environments.

Now there's another aspect to Saturn. Venus is creating a quincunx, that's 150 degrees. And that also indicates spending time by yourself, spending some alone time to reset and clear any resistance that you may have to creating changes in your life.

Focus instead on being very grateful and affectionate. Venus always wants us to remember harmony and beauty and love because, when you have beauty around you, it does such wonders in relaxing you and reminding you that the beauty of nature is a reflection of Source, of the universe and nature replenishes herself constantly, and how beautiful that is the four seasons, the natural spiraling of energy that happens.

And so Venus is a reminder - Venus, the divine feminine - is a reminder of that.

So in quincunx to Saturn, you want to take that seriously. You don't want to not pay attention to your environment and how you relate to people and what you say, and also allow others to turn to you for support, but you do need extra rest during this connection.

And then finally we have Jupiter sextile Neptune that has happened before. We have this year three connections with Jupiter and Neptune, and the second of the three happened a week or so ago. So now we're still being blessed by it because it's happening during the full moon.

Jupiter being the planet of fortune expansion, wisdom, joy planet, and Neptune, the planet of dreams and mysticism and unconditional love. This is all very beautiful energy, and it shows that your dreams are coming true. You can really create rapid personal growth and feel much more creative and joyful in how you approach your day.

So that is the full moon in Aquarius.

Then we have the New Moon in Leo, and it's very late Leo, 26 degrees happening on the 18th and 19th of August - the 19th of August, universal time, 3:42 AM, and then the 18th in the Americas.

There's a lot of very powerful, intense energy with this New Moon, but it is in a sense, more harmonious.

What we have is a conjunction with Mercury. The Sun and Moon are at 26 degrees Leo. Mercury is at 28 degrees. So that really heightens your ability to think things through, which is really lovely. Your mind will be very activated. Your heart and mind will be synchronized.

You'll be able to really focus on practical thinking and communicate your ideas beautifully and negotiate and correspond in a very clear way. So that's beautiful.

And then we have Mars forming this triple trine to the sun, moon and mercury, which are in a conjunction of course, and that is really lovely energy. Mars brings emotional focus when it contacts the moon in this way with a trine - there's a lot of fire, there's passion, there's enthusiasm.

And yes, you may feel a little impulsive. So you want to guard against reactionary tendencies. But it is definitely a time for creating success and independence as well. And then with the sun, you just feel energized. You feel stimulated to act, you feel this creativity within you, that is very connected to the sacred warrior energy of Mars.

It's a real celebration of you as a creative being and trusting your intuition and your connection to the light and allowing it to propel you into whatever situation you are drawn to. Very, very beautiful energy.

And then we have Mars forming a square to Saturn and Pluto. Now Saturn is at 26 degrees and Pluto at 22 degrees in Capricorn. That energy is more filled with friction.

Having maybe the ideas in conflict with the direction that you're going in.

Mars is of course, very fiery. So when it creates a square to Saturn, there can be a sense of not moving forward. Like it's a great activation of your responsibilities, but you need to persevere through challenges and any heated situations that may come up. Just being poised and ready and breathing in deeply and staying in a position of - okay, I can handle this. I just need to make sure I don't overreact.

Mars square to Pluto is an energy that fires you up with goal-directed, leadership, power, desires. It's very sexual energy. There's a lot of tension here. There's a sense of these two planets that are co-rulers of Scorpio needing an outlet. You will have the courage and confidence to move forward, but you need to make sure that you don't do so in a disempowering way or where things are out of control, where you get overly passionate at other people's expense in order to get your goals fulfilled.

So this is a wonderful aspect for uncovering secrets, for getting the record straight, seeing the truth. But it won't be so easy, initially because of the square, there's a lot of tension there. So, it's very empowering, but you just need to watch the tendency here to go overboard and be compulsive or obsessive.

Just rely on your sense of inner peace to take you to a place of serenity before you move.

Just to mention again, that the same planet, Mars also forms this triple trine to the Sun, Moon and Mercury. So there is again that outlet of tension through harmony that we have as always.

And then there is another lovely aspect here with this New Moon, and that is Venus sextile Uranus. I really like this aspect very much, because you feel excited about sharing love and sharing beauty. Venus is the ruler of Taurus.

Uranus is the ruler of Aquarius, and Uranus is currently in Taurus. So, there is a sense of true creativity here, and the desire for freedom and channeling your energy, especially if it feels nervous, generally, channeling your energy to imagination and intuition and exploration and joy.

Also being open to explore a shift in how you generate financial flow. Venus also governs that area of creating a beautiful, inspiring product or service that just lights you up from the inside, and taking a risk in doing so - doing something that you may not have done beforehand.

So those are the universal month number and the two lunations. And now we're going to look in detail at the Astro-Numerology for every day in August.
