– Audio Transcript and Daily Guide –

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for January, 2021!

We have reached the next year! Unbelievable and so exciting - as is this incredible month of January.

Two beautiful lunations are activated this month as is the number 6, which is the number of love and appreciation and nurturing and everything that feels comforting and abundant. So it's a wonderful way to begin 2021.

So let's begin with the universal month number for January, which is 6. So, 2021 is a 5 universal year. January is a 6 universal month, and that blends together a sense of excitement about how you can be of service. That's one way to look at those two numbers.

So the excitement is the 5 - the willingness to be very open. And then the 6 is very much about nurturing, being responsible about your ability to nurture. And that's not just with family, but if you're in a profession where you naturally are serving others, nurturing others, that will step up.

6 also governs your health. It governs love relationships, it governs abundance, financial flow. All of those will be looked at in a new way as we merge the 5 and the 6 - meaning if things are not harmonious or flowing, then you'll be asked to change something. So in any case, approaching the month in a very compassionate way and seeing yourself as somebody who helps and supports others as opposed to judging others and reacting, that will be one of the big themes.

People will need you more in a loving capacity this month.

That can mean a deepening of friendships or taking friendships or relationships to another level. If you have children, your children possibly requiring more nurturing at this time. The energy in January is very potent. January and February have a lot of astrological events going on. So there is going to be a really big surge - almost like a wind blowing through to bring in the new year.

You'll want to get as settled as possible, both business and at home, and be there for others who feel a little bit unsettled with the changes that are coming in with the new Aquarian Age, the number 5 and all the "stelliums" that are being activated astrologically the first few months.

So it's a big month for personal growth and, as I said, love and financial flow and compassion, family, home business - all of those.

And then the two lunations.

New Moon in Capricorn

Natal Chart

Tropical Placidus True Node

We have a New Moon in Capricorn on the 13th. That's exactly at 5:00 AM Greenwich Mean Time, which is 12:00 AM EST in the Americas. However, it is January 12th for any other time zone that comes later. So Central time, Mountain, Pacific, Hawaiian, all of those will be on January 12th for this new moon in Capricorn.

We have a conjunction with Sun and Moon and Pluto! They're almost exactly conjunct.

So Sun and Moon will be at 23 degrees and Pluto will be at 24 degrees in Capricorn. That's pretty powerful.

Talk about transformation being accelerated, soul growth, being accelerated, evolution of the planet being accelerated, looking at issues of power and control in a big way and responding to those, because at this point, Saturn and Jupiter are firmly in Aquarius. They're still conjunct and they will be merged with Mercury.

Aquarius is sort of beginning that stellium (that culminates in February). And now we already have a stellium in Aquarius right there - Saturn Jupiter, Mercury are only within four degrees at this point, all three planets.

So we have this bridging, which I talked about a lot in the 2021 Ultimate Yearly Forecast. It shows up everywhere, this coming year, that bridging of the old and the new.

So this New Moon represents the old, the structures of Capricorn. Of course, Saturn, the ruler of Capricorn, has now moved into Aquarius. So the structure is being dismantled exposed and set free, basically to renew and build something that is more joyful - Jupiter.

It's a very powerful New Moon because of all the bunching up of these planets, very close to each other. Pluto is going to accelerate the transformation. Jupiter and Saturn will be square to Mars and square to Uranus and they're conjunct in Taurus.

So you can see... There's a lot of very intense energy. Anytime you have any conjunction or stellium, which is more than two planets together- in this case we have three stelliums or conjunctions:

1. We've got the Sun and Moon and Pluto.
2. We've got Saturn, Jupiter and Mercury in Aquarius.
3. And then we have Mars and Uranus in Taurus.

Anytime you have conjunctions, everything intensifies. With several, it goes on overdrive really.

So there is a huge developmental aspect to this - great opportunities for growth and understanding if you are open, if you are willing to accept this energy.

When the New Moon conjuncts Pluto and they are within a degree, it really increases your ability to be empowered, to use your personal courage and to manifest the outcomes in your life that are hopefully high vibrational. I mean, they can be any outcomes, obviously, but you have this increased magnetism and intensity of Pluto that is stirring you to bring things to the surface so that you know what you're dealing with and then can make very potent decisions about how to move forward.

The other thing you'll sense very clearly is, if there is energy that is not for your highest good. So that would be a disempowerment energy or manipulation. You will be able to have that second sense of knowing the truth, because Pluto is the ruler of Scorpio. The Scorpio stinger goes straight to the truth, and you will know when a situation, a thought, a person is either helping you uncover the truth or not, covering it up in other words.

So it'll increase the understanding of mysteries and bringing forth any behaviors that are either, obsessive, addictive, destructive, or obviously the opposite - sacred, beautiful divine. And you will really see clearly. You'll have the 2020 vision that you acquired in the previous year to guide you through those moments.

And then of course we have the square from Mars to the stellium in Aquarius, and that would be Saturn Jupiter, Mercury.

Mars square Saturn stimulates a strong activation of growth. So, there can be resistance to certain things and you just have to listen to what is not flowing easily. So... What am I putting my energy into? And the door's not opening up. Following that thread.

Then Jupiter square Uranus, which is a longer term aspect means that it's enhancing change. And it will allow you to embrace big opportunities. Big changes. And ask you not to be impatient either. You know, Uranus in Aquarius can move very quickly. They're related to air.

So this Jupiter square Uranus is urging you to break free from restriction that we're under at this time and releasing ourselves. And be open to whatever comes your way, which usually are major opportunities.

We also have Mercury square Uranus. That's the lower mind, higher mind. That can bring a lot of excitement, unexpected news, changes of plans. A change of plans are going to be apropos for the whole year because the Aquarian and 5 Universal Year energy just facilitate changes of plans.

But in this case, the normal pace of your life will increase. You'll just go faster, and that can sometimes bring a sense of feeling a little bit unsettled, but it also gives you the increased ability to move quickly through whatever changes are happening fast and not holding on for dear life to the past... resisting the change.

So there's a lot of pluses to this as well.

The final aspect is Venus trine to Uranus, and that's very beautiful energy. It stimulates love, it can bring new romance, it can bring new, exciting financial windfalls, bonuses. It's a very positive energy for creativity, and it will absolutely help that square that Mars is creating with the other planets. All right. So that's the first lunation.

Then the second one of the year will happen on January 28th - the Full Moon in Leo.

So this one also is extremely potent for a really lovely reason. The Sun is exactly merged with Jupiter - we couldn't be closer! They're both at 9 degrees within just a few minutes apart.

And that means Jupiter is opposite the Moon. And the moon is in Leo and Jupiter loves Leo.

Jupiter is the ruler of Sagittarius, a fire sign just like Leo. So this is an incredible formation that's happening with Jupiter on top of the Sun and then Saturn close by.

Saturn will help to implement many of the shifts that were ongoing up until this point.

So by the end of January, there will be more sense of stability because Saturn conjunct the Sun will bring that.

And Venus is conjunct Pluto. They are exact at 25 degrees.

As you can see, there are a lot of conjunctions and this keeps happening in 2021! It's incredibly powerful.

And then the other conjunction during this Full Moon is Uranus and Mars. They're still within four degrees. And in this case, that Uranus / Mars conjunction is forming a T-square with this Full Moon. That means they are 90 degrees from the Sun and 90 degrees from the Moon. And that creates a lot of activity and forward momentum with your plans.

And it is shortly after this that Mercury stations retrograde at the end of January. This time, right around the 30th will be very stimulating and you'll feel a sense of relief in some ways, but also a call to action.

The sacred warrior in you is going to want to move ahead and benefit from all the incredible Jupiterian energy. The 9 degrees by the way is incredible because it is so connected to Jupiter. It is wisdom, and Jupiter also governs wisdom, higher education, wisdom, learning. So there is a sense of real understanding and the ability to love what you're learning, the unconditional love of the number 9 and not shy away from being in a place of total acceptance and being the Sage for yourself.

This is an incredible lunation. They just keep happening. The intensity is helping us along as we start our journey in the Age of Aquarius.

One other aspect I'll mention is that Chiron is forming a beautiful triangle with this Full Moon. Chiron at 5 degrees in Aries. And this is a sextile to the Sun and trine to the Moon, so there's a lot of healing here.

And I feel in general that the year 2021 will bring many discoveries that either were not available for whatever reason and are now being brought forth. And I'm talking about alternative medicine, anything to do with supporting everyone through whatever health issues they're experiencing, because Aquarius governs these innovations and Chiron forming this gorgeous triangle. And the trine to the Moon in Leo is just showing that we will be ready. We will want these new tools that will be preventative health and supportive of our immune system.

And remember Chiron is in Aries, the first sign. So it's innovative new ideas that are being brought forth or being brought to light.

So those are the two lunations and the universal month number of 6 for January. And now it is time to look at each day in January, 31 straight days in great detail.
