– Audio Transcript and Daily Guide –

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for March, 2020!

This is going to be one of those moments in the year where we really feel a shift happening as we move out of a very powerful Mercury Retrograde in Pisces and into a wonderful, wonderful conjunction with Pluto and Jupiter that starts coming together with Mars included - a triple conjunction, a stellium at the end of March.

Now we always begin with the universal month number and in this case it's number 7 and then I move into the two lunations, the Virgo Full Moon and the Aries New Moon, both of which are so joyful and carry a lot of forward momentum. The full moon in Virgo actually happens the same day that Mercury stations direct - and Mercury rules Virgo. So there's so much to share with you.

So let's begin with the universal month number for March. Now we are in a 6 month in February, which is about healing and love. Compassion. Health. 6 governs everything to do with nurturing taking care of family, taking care of your own body. And it's about abundance. It's about feeling abundance. And feeling is the key word here. Actually getting in touch with who you are at Soul level in terms of your heart.

Since we're in a 4 universal year, this February time of 6... 6 and 4 are the two family numbers. So you may have more family obligations or openings in your family for more healing and love and also to do with your home, your physical home and making sure that that is a nurturing place. And as I said, your health and healing are very much part of this because your temporary home for your soul is your body. So we want to make sure we take care of that.

NOW we're moving into a 7 universal month in March and that will be in a 4 universal year. 2020 is a 4. And so that will be a month of reflection and introspection and really embracing meditation, meditative practices, anything that takes you to a place of stillness and serenity and quiet time quieting the mind.

7 is aligned with intuition and it is very connected to research and learning. So we definitely can use our mind in a practical way since we're in a 4 universal year, which is very down to earth step-by-step approach.

However, we also in a 7 monthly cycle need to tune into the higher mind, the intuition side, which is what Aquarius actually rules - the Aquarian age, listening to the universal and incredible impact that we have when we listen to our guides. Listening just in general to what our heart and soul is sharing with us in an instant.

And so the truth is really able to unfold when we get into that place of surrender. 7 is truly the number of surrender. When you look at the top of the number seven, it represents heaven. And then the diagonal line coming down represents heaven coming to earth.

How does that happen? Through intuitive insights. It's your ability to listen to your inner voice. And that diagonal line also represents the lightning strike of intuition coming down from heaven. So you'll get a lot of insights into your life in March.

And we're ending a Mercury retrograde. Mercury will have to go through the shadow period before it steps out back into where the retrograde began, which is 12 degrees in Pisces, almost 13 degrees Pisces. So once it has bridged into 13 degrees Pisces near the end of March, that's when we'll be out of the shadow period.

The reason I mentioned the shadow period, especially this time, is that this particular mercury retrograde is very, very strong and it is accentuating everything that I mentioned earlier in terms of health healing, love, family responsibility, an expansive feeling of love. During a mercury retrograde Pisces, which is a sign of feeling, it's a water sign accentuating the need to feel more sensitive, feel in touch, connect with others heart to heart, completely away from analyzation and anything to do with mind games and all of that.

This mercury retrograde and Pisces continues in March. And it will absolutely help us to evolve as inspirational beings, beings who are inspired. The intellectual side is still active, but it is just a way to translate what comes through.

So March being a 7 universal month, going back to that number, is awakening us to be able to be receptors and antennas to the divine. And that's really the true meaning of the number 7.

Now the mercury retrograde ends on March 9th. So that's obviously an important juncture. And until then, because we're in a 7 universal month in March, you will definitely want to take more rest, more time for things like allow more time and like if you actually need to get somewhere leave earlier than you usually do or give yourself breathing room to, to fulfill any projects or take a sabbatical.

In fact, the number 7 which governs March is all about taking some kind of sabbatical, taking more time alone, especially taking time in nature, reconnecting with the earth, grounding your body by putting your feet on earth, on the ground, and rejuvenating your whole body, your mind, your spirit, getting away from the hustle and bustle and turning to reading an inspirational book or writing or contemplation or just resting, right? Just allowing things to take you to that dream state.

We'll still be in Pisces for most of March and Pisces does govern dreams. So you'll want to tune into those insights that come through and take advantage of this very spiritual moment and use your mental capacity for inspiration - not to analyze necessarily, though you can do a lot of wonderful research during a 7 vibration, however, you don't want to get too caught up in the mind and use more of the intuition side.

That's really the important point here because there will be problems to solve, a questions that are seeking solutions and those solutions may not necessarily come the usual route. They will come through dreams, through messages, through symbols. And that's why the listening and the attention to the higher mind, the higher vibrational communication that we have is so important. So be careful not to overanalyze, be careful not to worry during a seven cycle. Instead just surrender.

Let go. Let God. Allow yourself to just be a vessel of receptivity.

So then we're going to cover the two lunations.

The first one is the Full Moon in Virgo.

I'm very excited about this full moon because the Sun is conjunct Neptune, which is the ruler of Pisces and the Sun is in Pisces when the moon is in Virgo opposite the sun. So the sun is exactly conjunct Neptune, I mean there's just a degree separating them - and Neptune is the ruler of Pisces. So Neptune is part of the full moon because the sun is opposite the moon while in Pisces.

So we have this moment of intense spirituality and it happens the same day that Mercury, the actual ruler of the full moon in Virgo, stations DIRECT!

What does that mean? Well it means that we will feel very soon after this full moon in Virgo, much more enlivened. Our minds will be not as inwardly focused. During this retrograde when Mercury is in Pisces, it is totally about going into other dimensions, letting go. A lot of people feel a lot more tired or they just need more rest for whatever reason - physical - maybe they have a cold or flu or some kind of virus.

Pisces governs that area as well. So it is a time after this Mercury stations direct on the day of the full moon in Virgo that will feel more invigorated and we feel like we can be more practical and get things done. Again, get into that flow of living on earth and having things move.

It may take about a week or so because it's a very, very powerful Pisces retrograde. So give it some time.

And in terms of this full moon in Virgo with Neptune conjunct the sun, you will again be so attuned to love and connecting to others unconditionally, not having judgment, feeling that unification of all races, all cultures, all countries, that we are all one and we are here to support each other. That is going to be a key theme.

Virgo where the moon is, governs health and it governs using mother earth. Using the tools of mother earth to stay in good health, maybe broadening out the ability to heal yourself through alternative means and tuning into what the more galactic offerings are that are out there. Why do I say that? Because the sun is in Pisces conjunct Neptune and Neptune is extremely multidimensional.

So there are a lot of healing resources and health resources out there that you just have to come upon through listening, intuition, research, friends, colleagues who mention something and it rings a bell or whatever the case may be. Or you come across something online that really resonates with you and you follow the thread because your intuition is saying, this may be something that can help you or somebody in your family. So I want you to really follow those threads because of the time we're in.

We do have a health crisis at this point, which I talked about China and the whole astrocartography (Watch or listen to the Pisces New Moon star code forecast, you can hear about why this is such a big deal right now.).

So we want to keep ourselves healthy. We want to really attend to all parts of our health. And that includes the elimination of anxiety. The flip side of Virgo, the shadow side of Virgo is anxiety, getting too anxious and really paying attention to stilling the mind and not allowing the mind to take over. Because then health really is impacted in a very challenging way.

And as you may know, in the U.S. the greatest factor for disease is stress. So we want to focus on how are we stressing ourselves out - how is that impacting us unconsciously, which is all Pisces category where the sun is conjunct Neptune during this full moon, right? We're in Pisces now. We need to really address those unconscious factors that are contributing to our stress levels, that are causing anxiety.

So this is a wonderful time to do that because - one reason I love this full moon in Virgo - is there is a triple trine to Pluto, Jupiter and Mars! Pluto and Jupiter are coming together in March and will be conjunct each other on April 4th. And this is one of the big, wonderful, joyful, fortunate moments of the year. And that's going to be very active in March.

So the moon forms that beautiful trine to Jupiter and Pluto and also to Mars, which will be at 15 degrees Capricorn. The Sun and moon will be at 19 degrees Virgo and Pisces respectively. So this is wonderful news because it will, like I said, after the 9th of March, things will start moving energetically forward and the momentum will feel very positive again.

And since the moon is trine those three planets, that means the sun is sextiling those three planets. This creates a very beautiful triangle of joy and fortune and positive vibration. Because of the connection to Jupiter and Neptune, and Neptune and Jupiter are forming a sextile, the full moon just gives you such beautiful faith and hope and the ability to cut through anything that is not of high vibration. So be very clear that there are low vibrational forces and they exist obviously, and they're being stirred up right now.

You wanted to stay very much in integrity and see through anything that feels like it is of lower vibration that can cause confusion as a result or deception, right? This is the kind of energy that is being shifted now.

So this beautiful triangle to Jupiter with Pluto and Mars is allowing us to feel that trust in happiness and fortune and faith and abundance and tune into that, set the dial to that. And that will take us out of any sense of being consumed or attacked by any other energy. So it gives us a lot of strength.

Mars and Pluto are incredibly strong and give a lot of courage, and Jupiter adds that wisdom and spiritual force and optimism. So this is very, very lovely.

Then we come to the second lunation in March and that is the New Moon in Aries.

As you know, Aries is of course the first sign of the Zodiac. So when we have a new moon in Aries, a new moon is new beginnings and Aries is the first sign. We have a lot of beautiful energy and forward momentum that continues.

By now we're getting very, very close to the conjunction of Pluto and Jupiter. Mars is actually forming a triple conjunction with all three planets during this new moon. So Mars will be at 25 degrees Capricorn, Pluto at 24 degrees Capricorn and Jupiter at 23 degrees Capricorn. So that's a triple conjunction that happens during the new New Moon in Aries.

It's so exciting because Mars rules Aries.

So when the ruler of the new moon, Mars, is conjunct Pluto and Jupiter, (which is basically the most fortunate conjunction that we can have in terms of empowering abundance and joy in your life, since Pluto empowers and transforms and Jupiter is all about the expansion of everything that's positive) well this is very, very good news!

And it will bring us to a point where we can feel like, we've gotten through that period that felt unsure and maybe confused, this whole Piscean period that we're in now, which is really letting go of so much. The Piscean age is ending at the same time, right? So we're in a place now where we're releasing so much, we're letting go, things are dying away and we are being reborn. And this is the moment where the rebirth really feels clearly in play.

And Now we have this triple conjunction of Mars, Pluto, Jupiter, and it's forming a trine to Venus. Talk about more optimism and more beauty. This is so wonderful. I mean, Venus of course is about beauty and love and anything to do with pleasure and abundance.

And so there's an ease now that you feel. There's just a very charismatic, high vibrational, creative stimulating sense here that is so beautiful. And like I said, the optimism is through the roof at this point. It's very, very exciting.

And then we also have Venus trine to Pluto and that adds as a lot of passion to anything you do, including your relationships in general. Everything that you touch is going to feel just very fateful, destined, deep, profound. There's just going to be a sense of pleasure and anything that's that's deeply connected to the arts to music is activated as well.

Venus is also trine to Mars. Now of course, that's always lovely because the energy is very social. It's about enjoyment. It's very romantic, very sensual and sexual and wonderful for friendships. Wonderful for anything that is related to starting a creative project.

Remember Mars is the ruler of Aries. This is the Aries new moon. So if you want to start something now with mercury retrograde completely over at this point, it's just a fantastic time for new beginnings in terms of your creativity and enjoyment and anything about beauty, redecorating, anything like that. It's just perfect for that.

Of course, Spring would have started a couple of days before this, when the sun moved into Aries, which I believe is March 20th this year. Maybe the 21st, depends on where you are in the world. But certainly Spring in the Northern hemisphere brings a sense of new beginnings. So this is all good news.

Now, one more thing to tell you. The new moon, meaning the sun and moon, are conjunct Chiron during this new moon and they are sextile Saturn. So it's actually two things to tell you!

So let's look at Saturn first, the sun and moon sextile Saturn is really fantastic for patience and perseverance and moving through any intentions that you have set and taking charge, being very serious, very responsible, attending to your duties - anything that is challenging you can absolutely attend to by using your leadership abilities, by learning or being instructed by a mentor. Saturn rules mentorship as well.

So there's a sense of you having all the wisdom and resources you need to tackle anything and also trust and respect your elders or your teachers - any authority. And if you are an authority, really being there in a big way because a lot of advancement and recognition is available when Saturn sextiles the sun and the moon.

So there's, there's room for getting a lot done, tackling your projects, working hard.

It's not necessarily a time to go out and socialize, though that is there in some of the other transits. So it is possible, but there's also a huge dynamic here for getting projects off the ground and especially new projects because again, the Aries factor, the Mars factor is very strong with new beginnings, new directions.

We also have a sense of protection because the sun and moon are both sextile Saturn. The moon is about the mothering, the nurturing, being protective of your family or protective of your partner. That can come into play as well. Since Saturn is about also being an authority, right? It's about sharing some profound emotion, deep feelings, serious topics that maybe aren't broached during other times.

More talking about commitment and topics that are really dear to you. Carrying out the responsibilities with a lot of patience, right? There's just a lot here about letting things unfold naturally. This is the theme of 2020 to begin with, since 20 is about patience and allowing nature to take its course, doing what you can, but not pushing things, not willing things, but allowing things, allowing life to unfold. So this is also part of this sextile with Saturn to the new moon.

Now the other part of this of course, is that Chiron is conjunct the sun and moon. And that is very helpful for working with energy. It's like Chiron on your Midheaven.

Basically what are you doing in terms of healing regarding your work, and what are you doing in terms of seeing yourself as a healer?

Now, I don't mean necessarily healer, though it can mean that where you are out there and you either are in the medical profession or in the spiritual profession as a health practitioner, but it means so much more. You can be a healer in any capacity.

Chiron just entered Aries last year. It's the first time we're aware of Chiron's existence when it is in Aries because Chiron was discovered when it had just moved into Taurus. That was 1977. So now it's in Aries for the first time when we're actually aware of Chiron's existence. So this is a rebirth of healing. Chiron is the sacred healer. So look at what it is in your life that makes you that extraordinary healer in what it is that you're doing.

Also this can point when possibly some emotions or energies are slowing you down because you need to focus on maintaining a healthy internal vibrational frequency.

So if it is not healthy and serene and positive and helping you move forward, assisting you to move forward in a very beautiful, joyful way, then you may need to slow down a bit because this is about healing after all.

Look at whatever there is that's causing you pain or that's challenging you. Anxiety issues can be part of that. Usually it is something mental that we're doing that we're holding onto, but it obviously can be emotional as well.

Unconscious. So open your heart and seek that natural vulnerable state that allows you to receive the answers and then you won't be in that hamster wheel of the same kind of issues coming up. You want to move out of that.

Now this is just so important. I can't state this enough just for overall healing and health and overall forward momentum and stepping into the new age, just stepping into who you are now. You are totally changing. You're transforming and you're moving to a new, higher vibrational place. So, things that will need to be let go of.

So this conjunction with Chiron is really the ultimate wonderful opportunity to do that. To discover what it is that you need to just say "No" to. And whether that's a feeling of abandonment or pain of rejection, whatever it may be, there's something there that is very tender and just has to be loved. Chiron is a planet of love. Sacred healing comes through loving. And so there's something in you, if you are feeling challenged during this time, that needs to be readjusted.

And you have so much help, you have so much beautiful help with Venus forming this triple trine to Mars Pluto and Jupiter and with the Sun, Moon and Chiron forming a sextile to Saturn. So there's so much help to do that. So just know that you are always supported.
