Star Codes for OCTOBER, 2020

– Audio Transcript and Daily Astro-Numerology Guide –

Welcome to the Premium Wealth Forecast for October, 2020 – a 5 Universal Month.

10.2020 is a very powerful code of new beginnings in the year of 2020, just like January was when we had the stellium. Now we have the zero added in the number 10.

So this code brings a lot of divine protection and also setting the zero point energy.

What makes it even more potent and intense is that it's a pure 5 Universal Month. So when you add $1+0 + 2+0+2+0$, it equals 5, and 5 is the number of the pivot point. It's the single digit that's right in the middle of 1 through 9.

5 pivots left and right. It faces left and right. It sits on a rocker. And so it is about change freedom, representing a change that's usually surprising. There is a restlessness, a sense of urgency sometimes with this number, but certainly a lot of opportunities, jumping in with two feet, making quick decisions, not sitting on things and being prepared for the unexpected.

2021 will be a 5 universal year. So what happens in October often is a preview of what's to come, and that preview of the next year happens every October.

This year what's to come is a focus on change and freedom. You might be wondering, well, isn't 2020 already enough change?! Well, 2020 was the start of the change itself, the transformation itself. And then the freedom side of it coincides numerologically with the beginning of the Aquarian age, the official start of the next 2000 year cycle with Saturn and Jupiter entering Aquarius together and having a conjunction at 0° degrees on December 21st of this year.

That will be a huge shift for us.

It literally is happening 10 days before 2021 begins. We have the theme of freedom for 2021's Universal Year of 5. And of course, Aquarius is about freedom as well.

So this is all a time then in October to get a sense of what it feels like to take advantage of opportunities. To have things shaken up so that you can see things, and to know how you're going to move forward after laying the groundwork.

5 again is the pivot point. So you've reached the top of the mountain. You're looking down, which path do I take down? There are a lot of choices to be made and a lot of adventures to be taken. 5 is a very fun number too. It represents the 5 senses. Of course, the most important sense, which should be the first sense is your third eye - and it's called the sixth sense, but really I feel it should be the first sense because that's our most important sense. But 5 represents the human 3-D senses of touch, sight, smell, taste and sound.

So it is about exploration, not holding on to old ways of thinking, but literally going out and forging a new way of thinking, a new way of being - all of those lovely things. So, yeah, it is going to be very exciting to say the least!

And moving on to the excitement level is the Full Moon in Aries on the first day of October. And so that date is a 10.1.2020.

Lots of new beginnings energy - and, given that Aries is the first sign, and given that Mars, the ruler of Aries, is in retrograde which means it Mars is enhanced right now because of being the closest to Earth while in retrograde, and given the 5 universal month number, which also is about pivot points... we have the next level of intensity and change that is being initiated with this Full Moon in Aries.

There's a lot to say about this full moon. Have a listen to the Aries Full Moon Star Code forecast as well. The main transit I want to look is the one that involves Mars retrograde because of Mars ruling this Aries Full Moon. Mars is forming a square that is almost exact to Saturn.

With Saturn and Capricorn, which is Saturn's own sign and Mars in Aries, which is Mars' own sign both Saturn and Mars are incredibly strong. So this square is definitely about the activation of the stellium that happened in January - Saturn being one of two important planets when Pluto and Saturn came together in January in Capricorn, in a conjunction that hasn't happened in 500 years.

Now Jupiter has joined Saturn and Pluto creating a triple conjunction that's been going on for a few weeks and will continue which is very powerful. During October Jupiter is coming closer to Pluto and then Saturn. This is followed by the conjunction of Saturn and Jupiter in Aquarius at 0° on the Solstice.

We have a two to three month period between now and the solstice. A new birth is happening. So, going back to the square from Mars retrograde to Saturn and of course, Pluto and Jupiter as well, this contact with Mars retrograde is extremely powerful.

Saturn will have gone direct three days before the Full Moon in Aries on September 28th.

Pluto is stationing direct three days after this Full Moon in Aries on October 4th.

So we have basically the same two planets in the January stellium joined by Jupiter taking us deeply within Mars inner territory.

Mars is asking - let's look at how we can mine the strength within and move beyond aggression, which is the old way of the expressing your masculine side - competition and aggression - and take that shadow side of Mars, which is that anger and violence, and have a really deep look at it - come to terms with the consequences of turning frustration into aggression.

The square to Saturn is saying, okay, it's time to look at this closely, in great detail and take responsibility for our passionate responses.

Mars retrograde square to Pluto is the unveiling. What has been hidden about this aggressive energy - we can literally dive deeply into the origins with Pluto. We can go within. And that means all the anger issues we have. In order to see them, they can get exasperated now. So we need to look at that and be calm about it, not judge it. Just acknowledge and bring it into our conscious awareness.

This is the way we have been approaching frustration. And now we're going to find a new way of looking at addressing frustration. A retrograde asks us to get centered and go into a place of deep breathing and peace.

So we are actually birthing and new way to handle when things get challenging. So this is all so much about a new way of life because of the Aries impact and the impact of October 1.

The Moon is in Aries. Chiron is in Aries conjunct the Moon for this full moon, bringing tremendous healing - healing of wounds and healing through Love, so the new beginning through healing. Using healing in a way that is truly instant by moving into a place of surrender and allowing that love to inspire and melt any anger.

This is a major moment. The Sun and Moon are at 9 degrees and Uranus is also at 9 degrees forming an inconjunct to the Sun - that's 150 degrees. It is exact during this full moon. So we have a triple 9:9:9.

9 is about release and letting go and culminations and purging. So we have a major theme here of something coming to a close.

New Moon in Libra

October 16 at 8:32 PM UT (London)

October 16 at 3:32 PM EST (New York)

October 16 at 12:32 PM PST (Los Angeles)

So then we move to the second of three lunations - the Libra New Moon on October 16 at 8:32 PM universal time. Greenwich, England, which is the same time as London. In the New Moon in Libra, there's a lot more equilibrium.

What's fascinating is - where we had Mars forming a square to that Saturn Pluto, Jupiter conjunction that stellium in Capricorn in the Aries Full Moon, we now have the Sun and Moon at 23° Libra forming an exact square to that triple conjunction in Capricorn!

So it's continuing the story of making everything really clear. There's a huge T-square with this Libra New Moon and the number 16 for October 16 is about sudden events - sudden things that awaken you and require that you use your intuition.

So what's happening is the Sun and moon at 23° Libra, Mars is still in Aries retrograding and is now at 20°. So there is an opposition from Mars retrograde to the New Moon in Libra.

They are both forming a square to the Jupiter, Pluto, Saturn, triple conjunction in Capricorn.

These amazing transits are basically tying the whole message of the Awakening together:

The Divine Feminine and Sacred Masculine realignment represented by Libra and Aries - and the stripping down of old structures, represented by the stellium in Capricorn, except now Pluto and Saturn are joined by Jupiter which enhances, expands, magnetizes the intensity of the Awakening.

Let's look at the signs - Libra, Aries and Capricorn are all three Cardinal signs. They begin the seasons. So they're about new beginnings and action. So there's going to be first of all, a sense of tension regarding where are we heading - where is this new beginning heading?

There is also a sense of freedom and liberation and joy because of the 23° of the New Moon itself, which is the Royal Star of the Lion number. There's a so much courage and strength in the number 23. It is also a number of many people and media.

And then there is still - what do we do when we feel upset or angry or frustrated? What do we do with our energy? Because Mars retrograde is very much engaged in this New Moon in Libra. So the New Moon is bringing together our ability through Venus and Mars, since Venus rules Libra, to bring balance into our lives by remembering to do all those lovely things. Breathing deeply, number one, not moving forward until we feel inner peace...

But not being in too much of a hurry. Rather, ALLOWING your heart to open, allowing things to run their course and allowing the intelligence of your heart know what is appropriate.

And being patient is very important when we have this kind of powerful T square. So the Libra influence with Venus opposite Mars is reminding us that it is the Divine Feminine and Sacred, Masculine that are being brought into balance.

And that's not always an easy thing when for thousands of years they have been out of balance.

So hence the challenges we're facing now as that process evolves.

We just need to know what is actually happening. The bird's eye view will always bring us back to equilibrium, balance. We just need to NOT get into the rabbit hole of drama and allow it to play out and just hold the space.

And so this Libra New Moon, which of course is about balances, stands for harmony and balance is reminding us of that.

So then we move on to the final lunation, which is the Taurus Full Moon.

Now, of course, Taurus is the sign that Uranus is in.

Anytime we have a lunation in Taurus that's close to Uranus over the next few years, it activates a lot of change and unexpected events.

This one takes place on the 31st of October and is the third lunation. So you can call it a blue moon. It is definitely a powerful full moon because Uranus and the Moon are exactly at 8°.

I mean, this is about as tight as it gets. They are literally exactly conjunct each other, Uranus and the Moon in Taurus. So talk about unpredictable energy!

This is the full moon a few days before the U.S. Election which happens November 3rd.

Now, let's look at Mercury briefly first. Mercury stations retrograde on October 13th. We have so many 13s in play now! If you haven't watched my brand new Venus and Mars webinar, I highly recommend you do, because it talks about why the number 13 and Venus are going to inform the next decade and beyond. The theme of Venus, Mars and number 13, and this Mercury retrograde are a case in point.

So Mercury retrograde starts on October 13th and ENDS on November 3rd, the day of the election. More on that in a bit when we get to the daily Astro-Numerology star codes.

And.... the Mars retrograde ends on November 13th.

So we've got 13 all over the place... the number that's been stashed away and denigrated and called many things to keep it from flowering and consciously engaged in our lives. It is aligned with the Divine Feminine because it governs the 13 weeks in a season, the 13 lunations in a calendar year... so 13 is connected intimately with the cycles on Earth and the Moon.

Going back to the Taurus Full Moon, we have this conjunction with the Moon and Uranus. We have Mercury retrograde, and the reason I brought it up is because it ends on November 3rd, the day of the election.

Mercury and Uranus are the rulers of the higher and lower mind. So they govern news you receive, any communication.

So this sets the stage for the possibility of a lot of breaking news, sudden unexpected, crazy communication. It's going to heighten even more than now. Just know that it's going to be surprise after surprise, because this is at 8°. It's an exact conjunction with Uranus and the Moon.

And Moon and Uranus are of course opposite the Sun in Scorpio. What is Scorpio? Scorpio is the sign of unveiling secrets. Scorpio is ruled by Pluto. So the news can be the unveiling of hidden truths that will break open our dialogue and perception.

Pluto has been in the news a lot because the Capricorn stellium is still going on with Saturn and now with Jupiter - Capricorn being the old masculine paradigm that we're breaking down. So, everything's coming to a head. And remember we're in a 5 universal month. So the unexpected nature of things is going to be quite dramatic anyways.

It's going to be fascinating to see what happens. All I can say to you is, just be prepared and have your place where you can go and have a safe, sanctuary - a place of calm. And get into nature if you can.

Don't partake in discussions that turn into arguments and are going to stir you up emotionally. Tempers are going to have even more unexpectedness and frustration merged into one. There's going to be a lot of energy activated.

The Mars and Mercury joint retrograde at the time of the Libra New Moon and Taurus Full Moon will always steer you to go within for answers.

Also with this Taurus full moon the triple 8:8:8 is extremely powerful. It instills leadership and courage. It instills a quest for visionary action. And Mercury retrograde forming an exact square to Saturn happens with both planets at 26 degrees. That's another double 8. So we are talking a quintuple 8:8:8:8:8 code in a 5 Universal Month!

Mars retrograde creates a square to Jupiter. So we have huge themes of intensity. That's the energy necessary for a new age on Earth to be birthed. We are being given the strength to push through this. The numbers on that are very clear with the 23° and 8°.

So find your tribe, find your people, find your space to stay calm and weather the storm and be in a place of peace through all of this. You are a light-bearer and we are here for a reason - to not partake in the drama, but to stay calm and help people through what's going on by explaining that it is part of the transition into the incredible age that we're moving into.
